Courtney from BayTSP verbally gave permission to reinstate over the phone, with a formal retraction email to follow. This account was included in a whitelist BayTSP was given by Viacom, however it wasn't put into place until after the 100k removal and she is looking into how the Norbit video was removed.

I've reinstated the channel, it may take some time for all of the videos to function properly again. One day, max.

The account received 3 DMCA removals from Viacom, two were part of the 100k removal for Jack Ass trailers, the most recent was March 2 for "Norbit - Trailer #1".

I will contact BayTSP (Viacom's DMCA agent) and suggest that they retract the claims.
