--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	------------------------------------------------	-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

Plaintiff, a California prisoner currently held at the Martinez Detention Facility, filed in pro se the instant civil rights action pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1983. The Court found the complaint, liberally construed, stated cognizable claims and ordered service on Defendants on March 7, 2011. (Docket No. 15.) Summonses were issued on March 14, 2011, but the Court has yet to receive confirmation that the summonses have been executed. Accordingly, Plaintiff’s motion for stay, (Docket No. 22), is DENIED with prejudice. Plaintiff may renew the motion once Defendants have appeared in the action and have been given an opportunity to respond to the motion for stay.

This order terminates Docket No. 22.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

DATED: 4/13/11
