Defendants.	)
_____	)

On April 29, 2009, plaintiff filed a “criminal complaint.” The Clerk construed it as a civil rights complaint and filed it as such. On May 6, 2009, the plaintiff objected to the Clerk’s construction of his complaint as a civil complaint and asserted that he did not wish to file a civil complaint, but a criminal one.<sup>1</sup> Plaintiff asks the court to “cancel” the filing of his criminal complaint as a civil one. As such, the court construes plaintiff’s objection as a request to voluntarily dismiss this civil action as improperly opened and grants the request.

<sup>1</sup> Although plaintiff reiterates that he wants his pleading filed as a criminal case, there is no authority “permitting a private individual to initiate a criminal prosecution in his own name in a United States District Court.” See Keenan v. McGrath, 328 F.2d 610, 611 (1st Cir. 1964) (per curiam); cf. Fed. R. Crim. P. 3.

1 Accordingly, the instant action is DISMISSED.

2 IT IS SO ORDERED.

3 DATED: 7/2/09

RONALD M. WHYTE
United States District Judge
