Dear Honorable Judge Fogel:

CLERK OF DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA
SAN JOSE

This is Chin-Li Mou, the Plaintiff of Case No. C09-01910, Chin-Li Mou vs. West Valley College, et. al.

As of today, it is June 29, 2009; I have been very patient waiting for defendants', West Valley College, answer, which was due on June 24, 2009. Until today I have not received any answer. I didn't receive any opposition to my request for Preliminary injunction either. Therefore, I was not prepared to last Friday's meeting because I didn't have arguments from defendants. From my understanding, since WVC was represented by counsels, and that they should know that they have to answer Plaintiff's pleading as well as write brief to in opposition to mine. However, I think defendants' attorneys intentionally hid their arguments, so I'll miss the chance to prepare, which is not fair to me.

In addition, defendants' counsels fail to follow FRCP rules to answer my pleading. The suspension from WVC occurred in early April and spring semester ended at the last week of May. There were plenty of times for WVC to schedule a hearing between those two months. The first hearing was scheduled after the semester ended. I think WVC intentionally delayed everything until I have no choice but to file a suit in court against the School.

Your honor: I, as an adult, also have my responsibility and schedule. However, WVC schedules hearing without even consulting the schedule with me. Your honor: I, as every other adult does, have my own responsibility, schedule. I can't reschedule my schedule around WVC schedule.

Even I tried my best to accommodate; however, WVC didn't follow its own promise to schedule the second meeting within the week WVC demanded me to free of (Exhibit A). I, as any other adult and human being, was not on call and paid by WVC to follow its order. Just like any deposition schedule, both parties have to agree upon. Again, WVC failed to respect me as a human being and intentionally disregard my rights. My health problem has been seriously bothering me recently, and I have a doctor appointment schedule on this Thur. There might be more doctor appointments that I have to see my doctors. I do have a summer class going on this summer as well.

I respectfully ask your honor's help to address these failures from WVC, and I really appreciate.

Respectfully Yours,

Chin-Li Mou

I did not receive your letter asking for an appeal until Monday. I did my best to schedule the committee, 5 very busy individuals, as quickly as possible. I will try to reschedule the team for another time next week. I need you to keep your schedule fairly open to help accommodate this hearing. I will let you know when this will happen.

before
 which is May 18 and May 12

Donna,

I feel i did not be respected by WVC as a human. You gave me less than 24 hours notice for a hearing, and I have a doctor appointment at 11:30am tomorrow. I can't cancel my doctor appointment for you very short notice hearing by e-mail.
