Statement:

I, and my partner Ezra Carbins, were assisting OPD conducting undercover operations in the parking lot of the shopping center located at 21st & Market street in West Oakland. I was positioned across the street in the Area lot and observed 2 men approach the undercover officers. The 2 men engaged the officers in conversation and cover units were advised that the 2 men were challenging the undercover officers. Sgt Mestas advised cover units that the 2 men were (putting the vcs in a dangerous situation) and to move in to control the situation. The cover van moved in and officers arrested the 2 men threatening the undercover. I observed a man wearing a red T-shirt shouting and running toward the arresting officers. I attempted to obstruct the man's path and ordered him to stop. The man was shouting and continued to move toward the arresting officers who were struggling to control the 2 suspects. I ordered the man to stop twice and raised my left hand palm out to stops his forward movement. Fearing that the man was going to lynch his friends from custody I kicked the man. This had no effect. I kicked the man again and this 2nd kick caused the man to stop his forward movement and back away from the arrest scene. The man did not seem to have any pain and I felt he might be under the influence of a drug. Within a few seconds the man again began shouting and again attempted to approach the arrest scene and refused the officer's orders to stand back. The man was arrested by OPD officers on the scene.

Notes: I was clearly identifiable as law enforcement. This incident occurred in approx. 30 seconds.

Note: The arresting officers attempting to control the 2 suspects had their backs to the approaching man. Their weapons and their backs were vulnerable to anyone approaching them from behind.
