STIPULATION AND ~~PROPOSED~~ ORDER
CONTINUING DATES

The parties to this action, by and through their attorneys of record, Michael Serverian for Defendants and Anthony Boskovich for Plaintiff, hereby stipulate as follows:

Plaintiff has been attempting to take the depositions of defendant Ernst and witness Charles Sisson since January 2011. Defendant Ernst has been unavailable and his first available date for deposition is 29 April 2011. Additionally, Mr. Sisson has been avoiding service of his subpoena. Plaintiff contends that he needs both depositions in order to effectively oppose defendants' motion for summary judgment, with the opposition being due on 29 April 2011.

1 Based upon this, the parties hereby stipulate that the hearing on defendants' motion for
2 summary judgment be continued to 20 June 2011 or thereafter at the court's convenience in order
3 to allow the duly noticed depositions to proceed and to allow plaintiff adequate time to oppose the 4 motion.

5 The parties further stipulate that, given the proximity of the proposed motion hearing date
6 and the trial in this matter, that they have no objection to a continuance of the trial and other dates
7 at the Court's convenience.
