

unnecessary for him to respond to Defendants' discovery requests. Defendants oppose Plaintiff's motion on three grounds. Dkt. No. 97. First, Defendants argue that Plaintiff has failed to properly follow the procedural rules for noticing and filing his motion. Second, Defendants argue that this issue was already resolved at the December 2, 2010 case management conference held before the undersigned judge. Third, Defendants argue that Plaintiff's motion fails to show any good cause for granting a protective order.

1

28

United States District Court For the Northern District of California

> Case No.: 10-CV-00602-LHK ORDER DENYING REQUEST FOR PROTECTIVE ORDER

At the Case Management Conference, the Court stated that it disfavored any stay of discovery. The Court ordered that meaningful discovery take place in advance of the mediation to maximize the possibility of settlement. The Court set the mediation deadline for April 30, 2011, and the close of all discovery for July 31, 2011.

Plaintiff filed the complaint in this action over a year ago, on February 10, 2010. The Court is disturbed that Plaintiff has not responded to discovery requests Defendants propounded in September 2010 and re-propounded in December 2010 and January 2011. The Court disfavors any extensions of the case deadlines and expects the parties to actively litigate this case to comply with the case schedule.

Plaintiff's Request for Protective Order, which was not properly noticed and did not comply with the Civil Local Rules, is DENIED with prejudice.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Dated: March 22, 2011

Jucy H. Koh

LUCY H. KOH United States District Judge