22 AND RELATED COUNTER-CLAIMS

23 Pursuant to Civil Local Rule 3-12(b), Sirius XM Radio, Inc. (“Sirius XM”) and
 24 Technology Properties Limited (“TPL”), Patriot Scientific Corporation (“Patriot”) and Alliacense
 25 Limited (“Alliacense”) (TPL, Patriot, and Alliacense collectively referred to herein as the “TPL
 26 Defendants”), jointly submit this Administrative Motion requesting that the fifth case listed below
 27 (Sirius XM Radio v. Technology Properties Limited et al.) be related to the first four cases listed
 28

1 below, all of which are or were pending in this district and had been previously related by this
2 Court, and in all of which the TPL Defendants are parties:

3 (1) Acer, Inc., Acer America Corp. and Gateway, Inc. v. Technology Properties Ltd.,
4 Patriot Scientific Corp. and Alliacense Ltd., Case No. 08-00877 JF (N.D. Cal., filed on February 5 8, 2008);

6 (2) HTC Corporation and HTC America, Inc. v. Technology Properties Ltd., Patriot
7 Scientific Corp. and Alliacense Ltd., Case No. 08-00882 JF (N.D. Cal., filed on February 8, 8 2008);

9 (3) ASUSTeK Computer, Inc. and ASUS Computer Int'l v. Technology Properties Ltd.,
10 Patriot Scientific Corp., MCM Portfolio LLC and Alliacense Ltd., Case No. 08-00884 JF (N.D.
11 Cal., filed on February 8, 2008);

12 (4) Barco N.V. v. Technology Properties Ltd., Patriot Scientific Corp. and Alliacense Ltd., 13 Case No. 08-05398 JF (N.D. Cal., filed on December 1, 2008); and

14 (5) Sirius XM Radio, Inc. v. Technology Properties Ltd., Patriot Scientific Corp. and 15 Alliacense Ltd., Case No. C10-00816 EDL (N.D. Cal., filed in S.D.N.Y. on April 24, 2009 and 16 filed in the N.D. Cal. on February 26, 2010 after transfer).

17 I. THE SIRIUS XM CASE SHOULD BE RELATED.

18 In the Acer/Gateway Action, (number (1) above), Acer filed a motion to have its case
19 considered to be related to the HTC and ASUSTeK cases (numbers (2) and (3) respectively).
20 This Court granted that motion in a written Order dated April 29, 2008. Or. Granting Pl.'s Mot.
21 To Consider Whether Cases Should be Related (April 29, 2008) [Docket No. 22]. Pursuant to 22 that Order, the first three cases were assigned to Judge Fogel. The third action mentioned above,
23 brought by ASUSTeK, has settled and is no longer pending. In the fourth action, Plaintiff Barco,
24 N.V. brought an Administrative Motion filed to relate its case to the first three cases. On 25 December 17, 2008, this Court granted Barco's request and related that action to the Acer, HTC,
26 and Asustek actions.

27 The Sirius XM Radio, Inc. v. Technology Properties Limited et al. action was filed in the 28 Southern District of New York on April 24, 2009. The TPL Defendants moved to dismiss the

1 action for improper venue, or in the alternative, to transfer the action to the Northern District of
2 California. Judge Buchwald of the Southern District of New York granted the motion to transfer
3 venue pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §1404 on February 17, 2010, and the Sirius action was transferred to 4 the Northern District of California. A true and correct copy of Judge Buchwald’s Order is 5 attached hereto as Exhibit A.

6 Local Rule 3-12 provides that an action is related to another action pending in this district
7 when “(1) [t]he actions concern substantially the same parties, property, transaction or event; and 8 (2) [i]t appears likely that there will be an unduly burdensome duplication of labor and expense or 9 conflicting results if the cases are conducted before different Judges.”

10 Both of these prongs are met here. The TPL Defendants are parties to all of the actions.
11 The Acer and HTC actions share four of the same patents-in-suit (the ‘148, ‘749, ‘336, and ‘890
12 patents from the Moore microprocessor patent portfolio [“MMP”]) as the Sirius XM case.
13 Similarly, the Barco action shares three of the same patents-in-suit, (‘336, ‘749, and ‘890 patents)
14 as the Sirius XM case. All of the pending actions seek a declaratory judgment of non-
15 infringement and invalidity of the TPL Defendants’ patents. Because of the overlapping parties, 16 property, and issues common to all of the actions, judicial economy and efficiency would be
17 achieved by having a single judge hear and decide claim construction and related issues.

18 Because the recently filed action brought by Sirius XM and the previously related actions
19 satisfy both prongs of Local Rule 3-12(a), the TPL Defendants and Sirius XM¹ respectfully
20 request that the Sirius XM action be administratively related to the pending Acer, HTC, and Barco
21 actions and assigned to the Honorable Jeremy Fogel pursuant to Local Rule 3-12(f).

22 II. SIRIUS XM AND THE TPL DEFENDANTS PROPOSE THE FOLLOWING CASE
23 SCHEDULE IN THE EVENT THE CASES ARE DEEMED RELATED AND
24 ASSIGNED TO JUDGE FOGEL.

25 As mentioned above, the Acer, HTC, Barco, and Sirius XM actions all involve at least
26 three of the same patents-in-suit from TPL’s MMP portfolio. To permit Sirius XM and the TPL

27 ¹ Sirius XM’s joinder in this request is respectfully contingent upon the Court’s modification of 28 the case schedule in the previously pending related actions to allow at least as much additional time for Sirius XM to prepare its case as is afforded it in the Schedule proposed in Section II of this Motion.

1 Defendants an opportunity to prepare and advance the MMP portion of the case to the same stage
 2 as the other three pending suits, Sirius XM and the TPL Defendants have agreed to a proposed
 3 schedule as set forth in the table below, which follows the sequence of events set forth in the 4 February 22, 2010 Order Following Case Management Conference in Case Nos. 08-00877 JF; 08-
 5 00882 JF; and 08-05398 JF, with the dates moved back by an average of 3-4 weeks for the 6 disclosures under Patent Local Rules 3-1, 3-2, 4-1, and 4-2.

7 The parties to the Sirius XM matter have met and conferred with the parties in the Acer,
 8 HTC and Barco actions. The parties in the Acer, HTC and Barco actions have agreed to file
 9 stipulations and proposed orders in their respective actions continuing the existing dates in their 10 respective scheduling orders to match the MMP dates set forth below. The stipulations that 11 would be filed are attached as Exhibit A.

12 In addition, the Sirius XM action also involves three additional patents ('853, '212, and 13 '949 patents) from a second TPL patent portfolio known as Fast Logic. Patents from the Fast
 14 Logic portfolio were initially asserted in the ASUSTeK action, which has settled. The Fast Logic
 15 patents are not involved in the Acer, HTC, and Barco actions. To minimize the burden upon the 16 Court at claim construction, Sirius XM and the TPL Defendants propose that the Fast Logic
 17 patents be phased from the MMP patents such that all the patent local rule disclosures for the Fast
 18 Logic patents occur sixty days after the corresponding dates in the MMP schedule.

19 Sirius XM's and the TPL Defendants' proposed schedule is set forth below in the 20 following chart, which shows the existing schedule for various events, alongside Sirius XM's and 21 the TPL Defendants' proposed schedule:

EVENT	CURRENT MMP SCHEDULE	PROPOSED MMP SCHEDULE	FAST LOGIC PATENTS PROPOSED SCHEDULE

15	Patent Technology Tutorial*	*If requested by the court Approximately 20 days after reply claim construction brief.
16	Claim construction hearing	To be determined
17	Status conference	Three weeks after the claim construction hearing
18

For the reasons set forth above, Sirius XM and the TPL Defendants respectfully request that the Sirius XM Radio v. Technologies Properties Ltd. action, Case No. C10-00816 EDL, be related to Acer, Inc., v. Technology Properties Ltd., Case No. 08-00877 JF; HTC Corporation v. Technology Properties Ltd., Case No. 08-00882 JF and Barco N.V. v. Technology Properties Ltd., Case No. 08-05398 JF, and that the schedule set forth above be adopted in the case, with respect to Sirius XM and the TPL Defendants, if and when it is related.
