On January 11, 2011, the parties filed a Joint Claim Construction and Prehearing Statement. See Dkt. #65. In that Statement, the parties state that “None of the claim terms of the patents-in-suit ... require construction by the Court.” The parties further represent that a claim construction hearing is no longer necessary and request that the hearing be removed from the Court’s schedule.

Based on the parties’ stipulation that no claim terms require construction by the Court, the claim construction hearing and related briefing schedule are hereby vacated.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Dated: January 25, 2011
