

1
2
3
4
5
6
7
8
9
10
11
12 UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
13 NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA
14 SAN JOSE DIVISION

15 SILICON ECONOMICS, INC., a California
16 Corporation,

17 Plaintiff,

18 v.

19 FINANCIAL ACCOUNTING FOUNDATION
20 and FINANCIAL ACCOUNTING
STANDARDS BOARD,

21 Defendants.
22

Case No. CV-10-01939 HW-HRL

ORDER VACATING MAY 7 ORDER
AND TERMINATING PLAINTIFF'S
MOTION FOR PRELIMINARY INJUNCTION

23 Based on the representations made in the parties' Stipulation, the Court finds good cause to 24 vacate its May 7, 2010 Order setting hearing for Plaintiff's Motion for Preliminary Injunction.
25 However, in light of Plaintiff's agreement to allow Defendants to first challenge the Complaint,
26 the Court orders that the pending Motion for Preliminary Injunction be terminated from the 27 Docket. (Docket Item No. 2.) Plaintiff may renew its Motion after the Court's disposition of 28 Defendants' anticipated Motion to Dismiss. Since the Court's calendar is completely full until the Fall of 2010, Defendants shall examine the Court's availability (posted online) and notice its Motion in accordance with the Civil Local Rules.

Dated: May 12, 2010

JAMES WARE
United States District Judge