| 1        |   |   |
|----------|---|---|
| 2        |   |   |
| 3        |   |   |
| 4        |   |   |
| 5        |   |   |
| 6        |   |   |
| 7        |   |   |
| 8        |   |   |
| 9        | UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT  |   |
| 10       | NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA   |   |
| 11       | SAN JOSE DIVISION   |   |
| 12       | J.H., a minor, by his next friend BELINDA K.,Mother of J.H., individually and his next friend | ) Case No.: 10-CV-02507-LHK                 |
| 13       | Petitioners,  | )) ORDER ON MOTION TO SHORTEN           |
| 14       | V.  | ) TIME                                      |
| 15       | YOLANDA BALDOVINOS, et al.,   | ý)                                      |
| 16       | Respondents.  | )                                    |
| 17       | Respondents have filed a stipulation to shorten time on their motion to continue the trial        |   |
| 18       | date. ECF No. 225. The Court construes the motion to continue the trial date as an administrative |   |
| 1920 | motion. Accordingly, Civil Local Rule 7-11 applies, and Petitioners shall have four days from the |   |
| 20       | date the motion was filed to oppose Respondents' motion. The matter will be "deemed submitted     |   |
| 21       | for immediate determination without a hearing on the day after the opposition is due." Civil L.R. |   |
| 22       | 7-11(c).  |   |
| 23       | IT IS SO ORDERED.   |   |
| 2425 | Dated: January 24, 2012   | Jucy H. Lon                                 |
| 2326 |   | LUCY H. KOHUnited States District Judge |
| 20       |   |   |
| 28       |   |   |
| 20       | Case No.: 10-CV-02507-LHK   | 1   |
|          | ORDER ON MOTION TO SHORTEN TIME   |   |
|          |   | Dockets.Justia.                             |