20
 21 Plaintiffs Jorge Alberto Campos, Eneyda Mendoza, Elisabeth Vasquez, Francisco
 22 Hernandez, and Ricardo Lopez, and Defendants The Posh Bakery, Inc., sued incorrectly herein as 23 "Posh Bakery Holding Company, Inc.", Jeffrey Ottoveggio, and Cheryl Lee, by and through their 24 respective attorneys of record, hereby submit the following Stipulation requesting that the dates for 25 Initial Disclosures and the Initial Case Management Conference be continued, as follows:

- 26 1. Initial disclosures in this action are due September 14, 2010 and the Initial Case 27 Management Conference is scheduled for September 21, 2010 at 2:00 p.m. in Courtroom No. 5.
 28 2. This is a wage and hour action on behalf of Plaintiffs alleging a failure to properly

1 pay overtime wages and for recovery of related penalties and fees.

2 3. The parties through counsel have met and conferred regarding the preliminary 3 issues on this case, and agree that in order to meaningfully investigate and evaluate the merits and 4 defenses in this action it will be necessary to review Plaintiffs' payroll records, time cards,
5 personnel files and other employment records.

6 4. However, Defendants do not currently have possession, custody or control of 7 Plaintiffs' payroll records, time cards, personnel files and other employment records, and are 8 therefore unable to make an initial disclosure thereof, because these documents have been seized
9 by the Santa Clara County District Attorney in connection with an on-going criminal 10 investigation.

11 5. Both parties believe that the initial Case Management Conference is premature 12 because they will not be able to meaningfully investigate and evaluate the merits and defenses in 13 this action until they have had access to Plaintiffs' payroll records, time cards, personnel files and 14 other employment records which are currently in the possession of the District Attorney.

15 6. The attorneys who represent the Posh Bakery, Inc. and Cheryl Lee separately with 16 regard to said criminal investigation, Michael Stepanian and John Williams, are currently 17 scheduled to meet with the District Attorney regarding the criminal investigation on September 18 24, 2010, at which time Mr. Stepanian will request that the District Attorney release or allow 19 access to said records for purposes of the instant litigation. Mr. Stepanian advises, however, that 20 the decision whether to release or allow access to said documents remains with the District
21 Attorney.

22 7. Therefore, the parties respectfully request that the Court extend the time for making
23 initial disclosures for 90 days and reschedule the initial Case Management Conference to a date 24 following the extended date for initial disclosures in order to allow time to obtain access to the 25 records from the District Attorney.
