1 Plaintiff San Francisco Technology Inc. ("SF Tech") and defendant Fiskars Brands Inc.
2 ("Fiskars") enter into this stipulation and seek the relief set forth below.

3 1. SF Tech filed its Complaint on July 8, 2010, alleging that Fiskars has falsely marked
4 articles in violation of 35 U.S.C. § 292. SF Tech asserts that it is a qui tam relator in this case.

5 2. SF Tech had earlier filed similar Complaints in this court, asserting similar false
6 marking claims against other defendants, also asserting that it is a qui tam relator. Those cases are 7 styled:

8 a. San Francisco Technology Inc. v. Adobe Systems Incorporated, et al., Case
9 No. 5:09-cv-06083-RS ("Adobe"), filed on December 30, 2009.

10 b. San Francisco Technology Inc. v. The Glad Products Company, et al., Case
11 No. 5:10-cv-00966-JF ("Glad"), filed on March 5, 2010.

12 3. Fiskars anticipates that it will challenge SF Tech's standing in this case. Fiskars also 13 anticipates that it might raise challenges to personal jurisdiction and/or venue in this case.

14 4. In similar cases involving qui tam relators under 35 U.S.C. § 292, District Courts have 15 split on the question of whether a qui tam relator has standing in such cases. See e.g., Juniper
16 Networks v. Shipley, 2010 U.S. Dist. Lexis 24889, 16–17 (N.D. Cal. 2010) ("Juniper Networks 2")
17 (finding standing); Pequignot v. Solo Cup Co., 640 F. Supp. 2d 714 (E.D. Va. 2009) ("Pequignot 2")
18 (finding standing); Stauffer v. Brooks Brothers Inc., 615 F. Supp. 2d 248 (S.D.N.Y. 2009)
19 ("Stauffer") (finding a lack of standing).

20 5. The District Court's decision in Stauffer (finding a lack of standing) is currently on 21 appeal in the Federal Circuit (Case No. 2009-1428). That appeal has been fully briefed, and the 22 Federal Circuit panel heard oral arguments on August 3, 2010.

23 6. It is widely expected that the Federal Circuit will issue a ruling in Stauffer concerning
24 the standing of qui tam relators under 35 U.S.C. § 292. The parties to this stipulation anticipate that 25 the Federal Circuit's ruling will have a significant effect on the standing question in this case.

26 7. In light of the pending appeal in Stauffer, and in order to streamline the issues in 27 Adobe and Glad, Judge Seeborg of this court entered an order staying Adobe on April 13, 2010, and 28 Judge Fogel of this court entered an order staying Glad on July 19, 2010. Those cases have been

1 stayed until the Federal Circuit issues a decision in Stauffer.

2 8. In order to streamline this case and to narrow the issues that this court will be required
3 to decide, the parties to this stipulation have reached an agreement. They hereby stipulate to stay this
4 case until the Federal Circuit issues a decision in Stauffer. In exchange, Fiskars agrees that it will not
5 challenge personal jurisdiction or venue in this court. This stipulation is not intended to affect any
6 other rights, claims, defenses, or arguments of any party. Accordingly, after the stay is lifted, this
7 case will be litigated in this court, and Fiskars may raise any defenses to SF Tech's claim other than 8 venue or personal jurisdiction.

9 9. The parties seek the following relief:

10 a. All proceedings in this case will be stayed with respect to Fiskars until the 11 Federal Circuit issues a decision in Stauffer.

12 b. SF Tech will notify this court when the Federal Circuit issues a decision in 13 Stauffer. Fiskars' deadline to file a response to the Complaint will be 30 days from the filing
14 of this notice.

15 c. The stipulating parties have agreed that personal jurisdiction and venue are 16 appropriate in the Northern District of California in this case. However, no other rights,
17 claims, defenses, or arguments of any party are affected by this stipulation.

18
19 In accordance with General Order No. 45.X.B., Dan Fingerman, counsel for SF Tech, attests that
