DECLARATION

I, Karen Beth Young, apply, pursuant to 28 U.S.C.A. 1915, for leave to proceed in the above numbered and entitled action without prepayment of fees, costs, discovery expenses, or security. In support of my application I declare under penalty of perjury that the following facts are true:

1. I am the plaintiff in such action, and I believe I am entitled to redress.
2. Because of my poverty I am unable to pay the fees, administrative or discovery costs of the proceeding or to give security.
3. I am an American with a disability.
4. The nature of my action is briefly stated as follows: I am following through with my original complaint filed in the Superior Court of California which was transferred here to District Court. Originally, I filed a fee waiver with the Superior Court of California and am requesting fees, costs, discovery and security assistance with the District Court now per court guidelines. This in order to assist with the costs for summonses, expert witnesses, paperwork copies and other administrative fees. The original complaint lists six causes of action to include 1st Amendment violation, 14th Amendment violation, Breach of Contract, Breach of Implied Covenant of Good Faith and Fair Dealing, Negligence and Fraud.
5. I relocated to this area in order to legally file this complaint in Santa Clara, California.

I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California that the foregoing is true and correct.
