ORDER

At a session of the court held in the United States District Court Northern District Of California San Jose, at the courtroom _____ designated by the court, on this day _____.

Present: _____, Judge.

In reliance on the representations set forth in the above application and declaration, it is ordered that the plaintiff with a disability in the above-entitled proceeding be, and is, permitted to prosecute this proceeding to conclusion without prepayment of administrative costs, fees or security. This to include all aspects of discovery and service of process. This before or after bringing action and without making a deposit or executing a bond for costs, because of her poverty as alleged in her declaration filed in accordance with the provisions of section 1915 of title 28 of the United States Code.

And it is further ordered that all judicial officers who have occasion to perform services in this action will perform the same as if the deposit for costs or security for costs had been given, and it is further ordered that if Karen Beth Young recover judgment in all costs for services rendered by officers will be paid, and a lien on any such judgment recovered will be given to secure the payment of all such costs and fees due and unpaid.
