_____)	(Docket No. 2)

Plaintiff, a California inmate at the Correctional Training Facility in Soledad, has filed a pro se civil rights action under 42 U.S.C. § 1983 alleging claims against prison officials. Plaintiff has filed a motion for leave to proceed in forma pauperis, (Docket No. 2).

DISCUSSION

A. Exhaustion

The Prison Litigation Reform Act (“PLRA”) of 1995 amended 42 U.S.C. § 1997e to provide that “[n]o action shall be brought with respect to prison conditions under [42 U.S.C. § 1983], or any other Federal law, by a prisoner confined in any jail, prison, or other correctional facility until such administrative remedies as are

1 available are exhausted.” 42 U.S.C. § 1997e(a). Exhaustion is mandatory and no
2 longer left to the discretion of the district court. Woodford v. Ngo, 548 U.S. 81, 84
3 (2006) (citing Booth v. Churner, 532 U.S. 731, 739 (2001)). “Prisoners must now
4 exhaust all ‘available’ remedies, not just those that meet federal standards.” Id.
5 Even when the relief sought cannot be granted by the administrative process, i.e.,
6 monetary damages, a prisoner must still exhaust administrative remedies. Id. at 85-
7 86 (citing Booth, 532 U.S. at 734). The mandatory exhaustion of available
8 administrative remedies is not limited to suits under § 1983, but to any suit
9 challenging prison conditions. Id. at 85 (citing Porter v. Nussle, 534 U.S. 516, 524 10 (2002)).

11 The PLRA’s exhaustion requirement requires “proper exhaustion” of 12 available administrative remedies. Id. at 93. This requirement cannot be satisfied
13 “by filing an untimely or otherwise procedurally defective administrative grievance
14 or appeal.” Ngo, 548 U.S. at 84. “The text of 42 U.S.C. § 1997e(a) strongly 15 suggests that the PLRA uses the term ‘exhausted’ to mean what the term means in 16 administrative law, where exhaustion means proper exhaustion.” Id. at 92.
17 Therefore, the PLRA exhaustion requirement requires proper exhaustion. Id.
18 “Proper exhaustion demands compliance with an agency’s deadlines and other
19 critical procedural rules because no adjudicative system can function effectively
20 without imposing some orderly structure on the course of its proceedings.” Id. at 21 90-91 (footnote omitted).

22 Because exhaustion under § 1997e(a) is an affirmative defense, a complaint
23 may be dismissed for failure to exhaust only if failure to exhaust is obvious from the 24 face of the complaint and/or any attached exhibits. See Wyatt v. Terhune, 315 F.3d
25 1108, 1119-20 (9th Cir. 2003). A concession to nonexhaustion is a valid ground for 26 dismissal, provided no exception to exhaustion applies. Id. at 1120.

27 Here, it is obvious from the face of the complaint that plaintiff has not 28 exhausted his administrative remedies. (Compl. 2.) With respect to the third formal

1 level of review, plaintiff indicates that his appeal is “pending director review.” (Id.)
2 An action must be dismissed unless the prisoner exhausted his available
3 administrative remedies before he or she filed suit, even if the prisoner fully 4 exhausts while the suit is pending. McKinney v. Carey, 311 F.3d 1198, 1199 (9th
5 Cir. 2002); see Vaden v. Summerhill, 449 F.3d 1047, 1051 (9th Cir. 2006) (where 6 administrative remedies are not exhausted before the prisoner sends his complaint to 7 the court it will be dismissed even if exhaustion is completed by the time the 8 complaint is actually filed). As it is clear from the complaint that plaintiff did not 9 exhaust his available administrative remedies before he filed the instant action, and 10 no exception to exhaustion applies, dismissal without prejudice is appropriate.
11 Wyatt, 315 F.3d at 1120.

12 B. Motion for Leave to Proceed In Forma Pauperis

13 Plaintiff’s motion to proceed in forma pauperis (Docket No. 2) is 14 GRANTED. The total filing fee that will ultimately be due is $350.00. An initial 15 partial filing fee of $ 9.64 is now due. Funds for the filing fee will be taken from 16 income to plaintiff’s account in accordance with 28 U.S.C. § 1915(B)(1).

17 A copy of this order and the attached instructions will be sent to plaintiff, the 18 prison trust account office, and the Court’s financial office.

19
20 CONCLUSION

21 For the foregoing reasons, this action is hereby DISMISSED without 22 prejudice to plaintiff’s refiling his claims after all available administrative remedies
23 have been exhausted.

24 This order terminates Docket No. 2.

FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

INSTRUCTIONS FOR PAYMENT OF PRISONER'S FILING FEE

The prisoner shown as the plaintiff or petitioner on the attached order has filed a civil action in forma pauperis in this court and owes to the court a filing fee. Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1915, the fee is to be paid as follows:

The initial partial filing fee listed on the attached order should be deducted by the prison trust account office from the prisoner's trust account and forwarded to the clerk of the court as the first installment payment on the filing fee. This amount is twenty percent of the greater of (a) the average monthly deposits to the prisoner's account for the 6-month period immediately preceding the filing of the complaint/petition or (b) the average monthly balance in the prisoner's account for the 6-month period immediately preceding the filing of the complaint/petition.

Thereafter, on a monthly basis, 20 percent of the preceding month's income credited to the prisoner's trust account should be deducted and forwarded to the court each time the amount in the account exceeds ten dollars ($10.00). The prison trust account office should continue to do this until the filing fee has been paid in full.

If the prisoner does not have sufficient funds in his/her account to pay the initial partial filing fee, the prison trust account office should forward the available funds, and carry the balance forward each month until the amount is fully paid.

If the prisoner has filed more than one complaint, (s)he is required to pay a filing fee for each case. The trust account office should make the monthly calculations and payments for each case in which it receives an order granting in forma pauperis and these instructions.

The prisoner's name and case number must be noted on each remittance. The initial partial filing fee is due within thirty days of the date of the attached order. Checks should be made payable to Clerk, U.S. District Court and sent to Prisoner Accounts Receivable, U.S. District Court, 450 Golden Gate Avenue, Box 36060, San Francisco, CA 94102.
