Defendants.)

On February 23, 2011, Defendants filed an “Administrative Motion to Bifurcate and Prioritize Forum Non Conveniens and Subject Matter Jurisdiction Arguments and Stay Briefing and Discovery Issues Relating to Personal Jurisdiction and Service.” See Dkt. #66. This motion is DENIED.

Plaintiff’s request for discovery in connection with personal jurisdiction and forum non conveniens is pending before the Honorable Paul S. Grewal, the referral Magistrate Judge in this action. Thus, the propriety of any stay of discovery will be decided by Judge Grewal.

In the event Judge Grewal denies Plaintiff’s request for expedited discovery, the briefing schedule on Defendants’ Motion to Dismiss [dkt. #56] shall remain as set, with Plaintiff’s Opposition due by March 16, 2011, Defendants’ Reply due by March 25, 2011, and the hearing set for April 28, 2011.

In the event Judge Grewal grants Plaintiff’s request for expedited discovery, the undersigned will consider appropriate modifications to the briefing schedule and hearing date, in
