DECLARATION IN SUPPORT OF PLAINTIFFS' MOTION FOR
FINAL APPROVAL OF CLASS
ACTION SETTLEMENT, FEES,
COSTS, AND INCENTIVE AWARDS

Date: August 29, 2014
Time: 9:00 a.m.
Place: Courtroom 4, 5th Floor
Judge: Hon. Edward J. Davila

1 Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1746, I hereby declare and state as follows:

2 1. I am a Class Representative in the above-captioned action.

3 2. On or about April 17, 2012, I spoke with Michael Aschenbrener and provided him
4 with information regarding my experience with using Google as a search engine.

5 3. Thereafter and before the filing of the Complaint, I provided substantial assistance
6 to Class Counsel in aiding their investigation.

7 4. I considered the likely time commitment that could accompany being named the 8 representative of a class action. I concluded, however, that attempting to right what I believed to 9 be an unlawful wrong perpetrated by the Defendant, and securing relief for others whom had 10 similarly been wronged, was the proper course of action.

11 5. Thus, I was willing to participate in and undertake all of the responsibilities and 12 risks attendant within bringing representative action.

13 6. At no time before or during this litigation was I involved in any pre-agreement
14 concerning any possible incentive award as a Class Representative. At no time before or during 15 this litigation and subsequent settlement was I led to believe that I would necessarily receive any 16 incentive award, let alone any specific amount.

17 7. I was contacted by Michael Aschenbrener on numerous occasions during the course
18 of this litigation to answer questions, provide documents, verify the accuracy of certain
19 allegations, and generally assist with the litigation of this case.

20 8. At no time did I condition my agreement to the proposed settlement of this matter
21 on receiving any incentive award, let alone any specific amount.

22 9. I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.
