Hon.

Complaint filed: Dec. 15, 2005
2nd Am. Complaint filed: Feb. 3, 2006

19
20 American Re-Insurance Company's ("American Re") Motion For Protective Order
21 regarding the deposition of Richard Murphy came on for hearing before the Honorable
22 _____ in Department ____ on _____, 2007 at _____. All appearances are as noted in the 23 record.

24 After full consideration of the evidence and the Points and Authorities submitted by the 25 parties, it appears and the Court finds that (a) Plaintiff AMICO has failed to show that Mr.
26 Murphy had some involvement in the underlying and that it has exhausted less intrusive means of 27 discovery, [and/or] (b) Defendant American Re has shown by admissible evidence and
28 reasonable inferences therefrom that a protective order should be entered prohibiting AMICO
