Subject: Apple v. Samsung (ND Cal) -- Additional Rule 30(b)(6) Designations

Diane,

Apple designates additional Rule 30(b)(6) witnesses as follows:

(1) Emilie Kim is designated to testify about the features and functionality of the Photos app, Camera app and Mail app. This relates to topics 30, 31, 33, 34, and 36 from Samsung's "Technical Patent Topics" notice. Ms. Kim is available for deposition on March 7. Please confirm this date as soon as possible.

(2) Apple designates Curt Rothert to testify about the most recently used applications bar on the accused products. This relates generally to Topic 32 and subparts (b)-(d) of Topics 26-28 from Samsung's "Technical Patent Topics" notice. To the extent Topics 27 and 28 relate to hardware, Mr. Rothert is not designated to testify as to those aspects of Topics 27 and 28. Because hardware is irrelevant to the asserted claims of the '871 patent, Apple will not be designating a witness on Topics 27 and 28 as they relate to hardware. We are working to determine Mr. Rothert's availability for deposition, and will advise as soon as we are able.

-- Peter
