

EXHIBIT 44-2

THURSDAY, MAY 12, 1994, 6:00 AM EDT EDITION

KNIGHT-RIDDER CURRENT

U.N. commander halting attempts to reopen airport

The United Nations announced today it was ceasing all attempts to reopen the airport until there is a complete ban on heavy weapons. U.N. commander Richard Croft said the United Nations will not be able to halt Bosnian conflict unless the Serbs agree to a complete ban on heavy weapons. The United Nations will not be able to halt Bosnian conflict unless the Serbs agree to a complete ban on heavy weapons.

Stunt launch lifts morning sales

The launch of the Knight-Ridder newspaper in a new format on Thursday morning led to a surge in sales, according to the company's marketing department.

Procter's health care plan

The American Procter & Gamble Co. announced today it will be offering a new health care plan to its employees.

2

14 TODAY

General Metro Region Nation World Lifestyle Obituaries Opinion People Weather BUSINESS 10 GUIDE 9 SCI/TECH 8 SPORTS 11 WORLD

14 to make screens flat

A novel way

Preview: The season's best books for kids

Dow drops 2.54 points to 3,766.35