Subject: Apple v. Samsung: Scheduling Lead Trial Counsel Meet and Confer and MTC

Hi Rachel,

Last night we advised you that Harold McElhinny is available for a lead trial counsel meet and confer at any time on December 5 or 6, with a preference for the 6th, and also could be available on December 7 before noon or after 3pm Pacific.

We also advised you of our planned schedule on shortened time for any motion(s) to compel that may be necessary if the meet and confer does not resolve the issues on the agenda:

- Motions to compel: Thursday, December 8
- Opposition briefs: Monday, December 12
- Reply briefs: Wednesday, December 14
- Hearing: Friday, December 16

We also advised you that Judge Grewal is out beginning on December 17 through December 26, and you advised that Quinn is unavailable the week after Christmas. We therefore need this motion is heard on or before December 16. That requires the lead trial counsel meet-and-confer to take place on one of the three days provided -- December 5, 6, or 7.

Which of the three days we provided will work for Mr. Verhoeven, and what are his windows of availability on those dates? Please advise immediately. Thanks.
