to the Court, none of the information sought to be sealed appears to be protectable as trade secret, nor does the information reflect the design and development of Samsung products, nor is it clear how publication of this information would cause serious harm to Samsung, as is claimed in the Arnold declaration. If Samsung believes that it can adequately support a motion to seal any of the documents submitted, it shall file a new request to seal by Tuesday, December 27, 2011. If no request is submitted, none of the information previously submitted for sealing will be sealed, and Samsung shall file non-redacted versions of the relevant filings.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Dated: December 20, 2011

LUCY H. KOH
United States District Judge
