Defendants.)

On December 22, 2011, Apple filed two administrative motions to file under seal. ECF Nos. 532 & 540. Apple requests sealing of certain documents that were designated confidential by Samsung under the interim protective order in this matter. Pursuant to Local Rule 79-5(d), when a party moves to seal documents designated as sealable by another party, the designating party must file a supporting declaration within 7 days, or the sealing motion will be denied. Samsung did not file a supporting declaration in response to the December 22, 2011 sealing motions.

If Samsung objects to the public filing of the documents identified in Apple’s sealing motions, Samsung shall file a declaration stating the basis for asserting confidentiality of each exhibit plaintiffs seek to seal. These declarations must be filed by January 10, 2012. If no
