Re: Apple Inc. v. Samsung Elecs. Co. et al., Case No. 11-cv-1846

Dear Mia:

I write in response to your letter regarding Apple's notice of deposition for Giho Ro, which we received after the close of business on Friday night. As an initial matter, Apple's notice is untimely, as it was served with just four business days before the close of discovery. On this basis alone, Samsung is not obliged to make him available.

Moreover, Apple's only articulated basis for noticing Mr. Ro's deposition was his alleged participation in preparing the documents referenced in Apple's Tenth Rule 30(b)(6) Notice. Subject to its objections, Samsung hereby designates Jae-Hwang Sim, Vice President of Samsung's Business Operations Group, as a 30(b)(6) witness for at least the topics in Apple's Tenth Notice. We trust that Samsung's designation of Vice President Sim for those topics obviates Apple's perceived need for Mr. Ro's testimony, and that Apple will withdraw the notice of deposition served last night. But in any event, to be clear, Samsung will not be offering Mr. Ro for deposition.

Please confirm that Apple will depose Vice President Sim on March 8, 2012 in Korea.
