

Exhibit 5

USPTO Design Day 2006

A program devoted to educating customers
and examiners on Design Patents

Date: April 10, 2006

Time: 9:00 am to 4:00 pm

Where: US Patent and Trademark Office
Madison Auditorium
600 Dulany Street
Alexandria, VA 22313

This Event is being cosponsored by the USPTO, AIPLA, IPO, and the ABA.

Morning Session

- Hear from USPTO's design management team on the current status of Technology Center 2900.
- Hear how the Office is working to improve the time it takes to issue your patents.
- See a demonstration for the new web based filing system, EFS.

Afternoon Session

- Guest speakers will address the USPTO design examiners to stress the value of the patents issued and how design patents impact the economy.

Agenda

Master of Ceremonies

Lou Zarfes

Supervisory Patent Examiner, Technology Center 2900,
U.S. Patent and Trademark Office (USPTO)

9:00 - 9:10

Welcome and Kick-off

Jay Lucas

Deputy Commissioner for Patent Policy, USPTO

9:10 - 9:30

State of Design Briefing

Jacqueline Stone

Director of Technology Center 1700 and 2900, USPTO

9:30 - 10:00

New Examiner Training Program

Joel Sincavage

Supervisory Patent Examiner, USPTO

10:00 - 10:15

Break

10:15 - 10:45

Publications Update and Q&A

Debbie Stephens

Director of Patent Publications, USPTO

10:45 - 11:30

EFS Web Demo and Q&A

William Stryjewski

Project Manager,

Search & Information Resources Administration, USPTO

11:30 - 12:30

Lunch Break - Auditorium

12:30 - 1:00

Honda's Need for Design Protection

Christen Millard, Principal Counsel

Honda R&D Americas

1:00 - 1:30

Strategic Thinking (Design)

Dennis Skarvan, Assistant General Patent Counsel

Caterpillar, Inc.

1:30 - 2:00

Design Patents and Real World Examples

Cooper Woodring

Industrial Designer

2:00 - 2:15

Break

2:15 - 3:00

Nike Design Patent Program

Julianne Davis, Assistant General Counsel

Nike, Inc.

Katie Maksym, Senior Design Patent Specialist

Nike, Inc.

3:00 - 3:15

Recognition of Guest Speakers and Closing Remarks

3:15 - 4:00

Tour of USPTO

Sign up at registration table upon arrival