Subject: RE: Apple v. Samsung (11-cv-1846) -- Motion for Leave to Submit Response to Samsung's Statement Identifying Claims It Will Assert at Trial

Dear Richard, we propose that the parties file a joint submission of one page each in lieu of Apple's filing yet another unilateral submission. If you recall, we proposed jointly filing the CMC statement on April 30, which would have obviated the necessity of filing this additional paper with the Court. Yet, Apple unilaterally filed its own statement, over our objection. At this point, we do not believe it appropriate (or that the Court would appreciate) further filings by either party. Nevertheless, if Apple insists on a further filing, we believe that it should be a joint submission that would reduce the prospect of more serial filings with the Court and that would allow both parties to address any perceived issues. We look forward to hearing your response to our suggestion. If Apple insists on unilaterally filing its motion for leave, however, we request that Apple include this email with its motion.

Kevin & Vicki:

Please let us know by 6PM PDT whether Samsung will oppose a motion by Apple for leave to submit a short response to Samsung's Statement Identifying Claims It Will Assert at Trial.

Thanks -- Rich
