18)
19	On July 1, 2011, Plaintiff Apple, Inc. filed a motion for preliminary injunction and 20	requested a hearing date of August 5, 2011, five weeks from the date of filing. Based on the 21	parties' previous representations, it appeared that the parties intended to conduct discovery
22	pertinent to the preliminary injunction motion following the filing of the opening and opposition
23	briefs. It appears that the schedule proposed by Apple would not provide sufficient time for such
24	discovery. Accordingly, the Court requests input from the parties regarding a reasonable time
25	frame for briefing and hearing Apple's motion. By July 8, 2011, the parties shall file a joint
26	statement, not to exceed 3 pages, proposing a briefing schedule and hearing date. If the parties are
