UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA—SAN JOSE DIVISION

Estate of Vincent McLaughlin and Raquel
McLaughlin Ray,

Plaintiff

Terri Owen, Media News Group, Inc., The
McClatchey Company, Aetna Life Insurance
Company and DOES 1 through 30 inclusive,

Defendant

Case No. CV11-02287 EJD

SUPPLEMENTAL CASE MANAGEMENT STATEMENT AND PROPOSED ORDER

Date: January 27, 2012
Time: 10:00 a.m.
Courtroom: 1

Pursuant to Local Civil Rule 16-10(d), and Standing Order for All Judges of the Northern District of California regarding Contents of Joint Case Management Statements, plaintiffs Estate of Vincent McLaughlin and Raquel McLaughlin-Ray and defendants Terri Owen, MediaNews Group and Aetna Life Insurance Company respectfully submit their Joint Case Management Conference Statement.

DESCRIPTION OF SUBSEQUENT CASE DEVELOPMENTS

1. The following progress or changes have occurred since the last case management statement filed by the parties:
 - a. Plaintiffs filed a First Amended Complaint on November 28, 2011. Defendants MediaNews Group and Terri Owen have filed Answers to the First Amended Complaint.

- 1 b. Defendant Aetna Life Insurance Company filed a Motion to Strike Certain
2 Portions of Plaintiffs' First Amended Complaint on January 13, 2012. This 3 motion is set for hearing on March 16, 2012.
- 4 c. Defendant Owen filed a Motion to Expunge Lis Pendens on November 16, 5 2011. That motion is also set for hearing on March 16, 2012.
- 6 d. Thus far, the parties have not engaged in settlement discussions. However, the 7 parties have agreed to confer within 120 days, once additional discovery has 8 been conducted, to determine and schedule an appropriate form of ADR.
- 9 e. The parties have agreed to propose to the court a 30 day extension of time for 10 all parties to conduct fact discovery, and the parties request a new Fact 11 Discovery Cutoff date of July 1, 2012. The parties do not anticipate that this 12 extension will affect any other deadline identified in the October 25, 2011 Case
13 Management Order.

- 14 2. Aetna contends discovery is inappropriate in this matter because it is governed by 15 ERISA and the review of Aetna's benefits determination is for an abuse of discretion
16 and limited to the administrative record. Aetna will not propound any discovery and 17 will oppose any attempt by plaintiff to supplement the administrative record

18 This is an ERISA claim and the sole issue is a review of the propriety of the 19 decision to deny or limit benefits, applying the appropriate standard of review. The evidence 20 supporting the claims decision is reviewable in that context only and cannot be added to by 21 information not provided to the claims administrator at the time the decision was made. It is 22 the propriety of that decision based upon the records then available that is the crux of any 23 benefit suit under ERISA. Therefore extra record evidence, including witnesses and exhibits
24 outside of the Administrative Record, is improper.

25 This Ninth Circuit has clearly established that "the abuse of discretion standard
26 permits the district court to 'review only the evidence presented to the [plan] trustees.'" Banuelos v. Constr. Laborers' Trust Funds for S. Cal., 382 F.3d 897, 904 (9th Cir. Cal.
27 2004)(internal citation omitted). "This conclusion is consistent with the nature of abuse of 28

29

1 discretion review, furthers the goals of ERISA, and is in line with the decisions of nearly 2 every other circuit to consider the issue.” Ibid. Under an abuse of discretion standard of 3 review, the decision on the merits, must rest on the administrative record once the conflict (if 4 any) has been established. Abatie v. Alta Health & Life Ins. Co., 458 F. 3d 955, 970.

5 There are two exceptions to this rule: (1) “...a district court may hear such 6 evidence when the court must determine if a plan administrator’s decision was affected by a 7 conflict of interest...[and (2)] the court [in its discretion] can hear evidence outside the 8 administrative record when the standard of review of the administrative decision is de novo”
9 only when circumstances clearly establish that additional evidence is necessary to conduct
10 an adequate de novo review of the benefit decision. Mongeluzo v. Baxter Travenol Long
11 Term Disability Benefit Plan, 46 F.3d 938, 943-44 (9th Cir. 1995). This case does not 12 invoke either of these two exceptions, and therefore evidence outside the administrative 13 record is not permitted.

14 3. The parties jointly request the Court to make the following Supplemental Case
15 Management Order:

16 a. The deadline to conduct fact discovery is extended by 30 days, with a new Fact
17 Discovery Cutoff date of July 1, 2012.

18
19 DATED: January 27, 2012
