ORDER RE: REQUESTED SCHEDULE
CHANGE

Plaintiffs have filed an ex parte application to extend time to file oppositions to defendants' motion for summary judgment and motion to sever. ECF No. 42. Defendants filed an opposition. ECF No. 45.

The Court notes that it has already granted the parties one set of extensions on their discovery deadlines. See ECF No. 30. Plaintiffs have provided no reason, beyond the volume of work involved in opposing the motions, why an extension is now appropriate. Moreover, extending the briefing deadlines would require a new hearing date, which the Court's schedule cannot accommodate, and which would interfere with preparation for the April 29, 2013 trial. Accordingly, Plaintiffs' motion to extend time to file oppositions is DENIED.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
Dated: February 5, 2012
