Presently before the court is Plaintiff's Motion to Modify the Case Management Order of February 15, 2012 (see Docket Item No. 44). A hearing is scheduled for April 20, 2012. Having reviewed the parties' submissions, the court finds this matter appropriate for decision without oral argument. Civil L.R. 7-1(b). Accordingly, the hearing is VACATED. Furthermore, the court finds that the Case Management Conference scheduled for April 20, 2012 is unnecessary at this time. Accordingly, the Case Management Conference is VACATED.

Plaintiff is a 73-year-old retired woman living in Watsonville, California. On September 2, 2011, Plaintiff filed a Complaint alleging that Defendants improperly attempted to collect a delinquent Capital One credit card debt owed by Mary Ryals from Plaintiff.

1 Plaintiff alleges that in 2005, Defendants obtained a judgment against Mary Ryals, who had
2 an alias of Mary Basich Serls. Since that time, Defendants harassed and abused Plaintiff in an
3 attempt to collect the debt. Plaintiff repeatedly told Defendants that they were attempting to collect
4 the debt from the wrong person. She has never used or owned a Capital One Bank credit card. In 5 2009, Defendants obtained copies of Plaintiff's credit report and attempted to take $2,500 from 6 Plaintiff's personal bank account. In October 2010, Plaintiff's bank removed $2,680.63 from a
7 joint bank account that Plaintiff shares with her husband. In November 2010, Defendants admitted
8 to Plaintiff in a written letter that debt involved a person with a different social security number
9 than her own. Defendants caused $2,580.63 to be returned to Plaintiff's bank account, which is not 10 the entire amount originally removed.

11 After Plaintiff's Complaint was filed in September 2011, the parties engaged in mediation
12 on March 14, 2012, but were unable to resolve the litigation. Plaintiff filed this present motion on 13 April 5, 2012. Plaintiff requests that the schedule be modified because of her advanced age and 14 because of the advanced age and state of health of her 93-year-old husband, who is a material fact
15 witness in this case. Mr. Basich suffers from degenerative heart disease and his advanced age
16 increases the risk of illness or death. Furthermore, if Mr. Basich becomes incapacitated, Plaintiff,
17 who is the sole caregiver, will have to take care of her husband.

18 Defendants oppose a change to the February 15, 2012 Scheduling Order.

19 Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 16 allows courts to enter pretrial scheduling orders and set
20 deadlines for the proceeding of the trial. Rule 16(b) provides that "a schedule may be modified 21 only for good cause and with the judge's consent." Fed. R. Civ. P. 16(b).

22 The court finds that a modification of the schedule is appropriate and requested for good
23 cause because of the advanced ages of Plaintiff and her husband, who is a material witness.
24 Accordingly, the court GRANTS Plaintiff's motion to modify the schedule.

25 Plaintiff also requests the appointment of a special master for the case. The court may 26 appoint a special master only to: (1) perform duties consented to by the parties; (2) hold trials and 27

1 make or recommend findings of fact in nonjury trials; or (3) address pre- and post-trial matters that
2 cannot be addressed by a judge. Fed. R. Civ. P. 53(a)(1). The court does not find that the 3 appointment of a special master is necessary at this time because the matters at hand can be
4 effectively and timely addressed by a judge of the district. Accordingly, the court DENIES
5 Plaintiff's motion to appoint a special discovery master.

6 IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the following modified schedule shall apply to this case:

EVENT	DEADLINE
Fact Discovery Cutoff	July 1, 2012
Designation of Opening Experts with Reports	June 1, 2012
Designation of Rebuttal Experts with Reports	June 15, 2012
