

1 judicial records relating to dispositive motions bear the burden of overcoming the presumption
2 with “compelling reasons” that outweigh the general history of access and the public policies
3 favoring disclosure.³

4 However, “while protecting the public's interest in access to the courts, we must remain
5 mindful of the parties' right to access those same courts upon terms which will not unduly harm
6 their competitive interest.”⁴ Records attached to nondispositive motions therefore are not subject
7 to the strong presumption of access.⁵ Because the documents attached to nondispositive motions
8 “are often unrelated, or only tangentially related, to the underlying cause of action,” parties moving 9 to seal must meet the lower “good cause” standard of Rule 26(c).⁶ As with dispositive motions, the 10 standard applicable to nondispositive motions requires a “particularized showing”⁷ that “specific 11 prejudice or harm will result” if the information is disclosed.⁸ “Broad allegations of harm, 12 unsubstantiated by specific examples of articulated reasoning” will not suffice.⁹ A protective order
13 sealing the documents during discovery may reflect the court’s previous determination that good 14 cause exists to keep the documents sealed,¹⁰ but a blanket protective order that allows the parties to

1 designate confidential documents does not provide sufficient judicial scrutiny to determine whether 2 each particular document should remain sealed.¹¹

3 In addition to making particularized showings of good cause, parties moving to seal 4 documents must comply with the procedures established by Civ. L.R. 79-5. Pursuant to 5 Civ. L.R. 79-5(b), a sealing order is appropriate only upon a request that establishes the document 6 is “sealable,” or “privileged or protectable as a trade secret or otherwise entitled to protection under 7 the law.” “The request must be narrowly tailored to seek sealing only of sealable material, and 8 must conform with Civil L.R. 79-5(d).”¹² “Within 4 days of the filing of the Administrative 9 Motion to File Under Seal, the Designating Party must file a declaration as required by subsection
10 79-5(d)(1)(A) establishing that all of the designated material is sealable.”¹³

11 With these standards in mind, the courts rules on the instant motions as follows:

Motion to Seal	Document to be Sealed	Result	Reason/Explanation
766	Notice Of Motion Related To September 20, 2013 Hearing	UNSEALED.	No declaration filed.
890	Apple’s Motion to Strike Arguments from Samsung’s Invalidity and Non-Infringement Expert Reports Regarding Apple Patents	Yellow highlighting in Docket No. 882-3 and portions indicated in Docket No. 940 SEALED; remainder UNSEALED. 21 ¹¹ See Civ. L.R. 79-5(d)(1)(A) (“Reference to a stipulation or protective order that allows a party to 22 designate certain documents as confidential is not sufficient to establish that a document, or portions thereof, are sealable.”).

23 ¹² Civ. L.R. 79-5(b). In part, Civ. L.R. 79-5(d) requires the submitting party to attach a “proposed 24 order that is narrowly tailored to seal only the sealable material” which “lists in table format each 25 document or portion thereof that is sought to be sealed,” Civ. L.R. 79-5(d)(1)(b), and an “unreadacted version of the document” that indicates “by highlighting or other clear method, the 26 portions of the document that have been omitted from the redacted version.”
Civ. L.R. 79-5(d)(1)(d).

27 ¹³ Civ. L.R. 79-5(e)(1). The Civil Local Rules have recently been amended shortening the time 28 available to the designating party to file a supporting declaration from seven days to four days. As this rule change was only recently implemented the court applies the prior form of Civ. L.R. 79-5 for the purposes of this order.
