Counsel,

As part of Apple Inc.'s June 15, 2012 Disclosure of Asserted Claims and Infringement Contentions, we inadvertently uploaded to the FTP two versions of the '647 patent claim charts for each of the Galaxy Tab 8.9 and the Galaxy Tab 7.0 and therefore did not upload the '647 patent claim charts for the Galaxy Player 4.0 and the Galaxy Player 5.0. The Galaxy Tab 8.9 charts were incorrectly uploaded as both Exhibits 129 and 135 and the Galaxy Tab 7.0 charts were uploaded as both Exhibits 136 and 137. We have replaced Exhibits 129 and 136 on the FTP with the Galaxy Player 4.0 and Galaxy Player 5.0 charts, respectively.

We also inadvertently uploaded incorrect versions of the '721 patent claim charts for the Samsung Illusion (Exhibit 98) and the Samsung Stratosphere (Exhibit 99). We have posted corrected versions of the charts to the FTP. Please delete any copies of the original versions of Exhibits 98, 99, 129, and 136 immediately.

Samsung GALAXY Note 10.1 Has Arrived

Game-Changing Device Hits U.S. Store Shelves Tomorrow

NEW YORK, Aug. 15, 2012 /PRNewswire/ -- Samsung Electronics America Inc., a market leader and award-winning innovator in consumer electronics, today announced its highly anticipated GALAXY Note 10.1 for the U.S. market. The device will be available for purchase tomorrow - August 16th, 2012 - across the U.S. at authorized retailers.

At a launch event in New York City, Samsung will be joined by fashion designer Zac Posen, who has created looks for the most elite stars, and acclaimed writer, producer, director Baz Luhrmann (William Shakespeare's Romeo+Juliet, Moulin Rouge and the forthcoming The Great Gatsby). Each will provide a window into their own creative process, and how the GALAXY Note 10.1 will unleash new levels of inspiration in their work.

The GALAXY Note 10.1 extends the GALAXY Note category, building on the success of last year's worldwide hit smartphone – and delivering the functionality and precision of a pen and paper by combining the S Pen with a 10.1-inch large display.

Adobe's premium creative application, Photoshop® Touch is preloaded and optimized for Samsung's S Pen to deliver unprecedented precision and control.

The device also introduces the game changing Multiscreen feature, which allows users to actually operate two different apps side-by-side, simultaneously, on the same screen.

Thanks to a 1.4GHz quad-core processor and 2 GB RAM, the GALAXY Note 10.1 can handle it all without missing a beat.

"Our goal with the Samsung GALAXY Note 10.1 was simple – redefine the tablet experience," said Tim Baxter, President, Samsung Electronics America. "The S Pen offers both active content creation as well as passive content consumption, while the Multiscreen capability finally enables true multitasking. For the user, the resulting experience is completely new and quite unexpected."

True Multitasking with Multiscreen Feature

With GALAXY Note 10.1's Multiscreen feature, users can effortlessly utilize two different applications side-by-side simultaneously for true and easy multitasking. Users can view Web pages or videos, or launch other applications while writing or sketching ideas with the S Pen on the other half of the screen – no need to toggle back and forth between apps.

Further, users can even capture and crop images from an app on one side, and drag them to an app on the side – for enhanced creativity and productivity.

Apps supported for Multiscreen are S Note, Internet Browser, Video Player, Email, Gallery and Polaris Office. The GALAXY Note 10.1 thus meets the increasing needs of a growing mobile workforce, from interfacing with customers to creative sharing.

The GALAXY Note 10.1 also offers the Pop up Play feature first introduced on the GALAXY S III Smartphone. With it, users can play back videos in a floating window that can be overlaid anywhere on the screen, providing a "picture in picture" experience. New for the GALAXY Note 10.1 is the ability to adjust the size of the video window.

In addition, GALAXY Note 10.1 offers a mini-apps tray that can launch a selection of mini-apps on top of others apps and freely moves around the screen. These include Alarm, S Note, Music Player, Email, Calculator, World Clock.

S Pen & S Note Make it Personal

Featuring an advanced S Pen with 1,024 levels of sensitivity, GALAXY Note 10.1 is designed for natural and intuitive content creation. The S Pen is embedded directly into a slot in the device and when removed, activates a taskbar with quick access to optimized S Pen apps such as S Note, Adobe® Photoshop® Touch and Polaris Office. Alternatively, users can easily set their preferred application to be launched instantly.

The S Note application is a unique tool that gives users the ability to combine notes and sketches with other digital content in ready-to-use templates. Shape Match converts hand-drawn shapes such a square and lines into clean and perfect versions – perfect for creating charts. Formula Match can actually solve formulas hand-written with the S Pen.

S Note is also integrated with knowledge search engines so that users can search for content, obtain information, and easily drag and drop content onto S Notes without having to switch between screens.

Adobe Photoshop Touch – Edit Photos Like Never Before

Adobe® Photoshop® Touch, normally a $9.99 purchase, is preloaded on the GALAXY Note 10.1. Further, since it is optimized for S Pen, users are able to control brush size and opacity by just adjusting the pressure of the pen on the screen.

"Samsung's GALAXY Note 10.1, with its pressure-sensitive S Pen, truly unleashes the power of Adobe Photoshop Touch and provides a great tool for creative expression," said Winston Hendrickson, vice president products, Creative Media Solutions, Adobe. "More than ever, people around the world want to create, wherever and whenever inspiration strikes. We look forward to seeing what they imagine with the S Pen and Photoshop Touch."

Users can also use popular Photoshop features such as layers, selection tools, adjustments, and filters to create mind-blowing images, or use the high quality GALAXY Note 10.1 camera to fill an area on a layer with the unique camera fill feature.

With Photoshop Touch, it's also a snap to add or remove people or objects from a photo, or blend two photos together.

To get users started quickly, in-depth step-by-step tutorials are provided to help users learn techniques the pros use for great-looking results.

Photoshop Touch is integrated with Adobe Creative Cloud providing users free access to powerful file syncing and sharing features and 2GB of storage space. Files can be synched to the Creative Cloud and opened in Photoshop on the desktop or laptop for further refinement.

The Ultimate ebook Experience

Samsung is adding even more value through a range of partners.

Kno, a pioneer in education software, will offer its e-textbook platform preloaded on the GALAXY Note 10.1. With it, k-12 or higher education students can say goodbye to heavy backpacks filled with books and instead, download any of thousands of interactive textbooks. Even better, with the new Social Sharing feature announced today, they can utilize the S Pen to highlight and annotate the texts, and share those annotations with other students and teachers in the context of their book.

The popular NOOK® free reading app from Barnes & Noble will also be preloaded on the GALAXY Note 10.1 as well as a customized NOOK for Android™™ Widget allowing quick and easy access to titles directly from the desktop.

A range of other partners are involved as well, delivering a complete solution.

To allow seamless collaboration with others, the GALAXY Note 10.1 offers a free two-year subscription to Dropbox, giving users 50 GB of storage space – a $100 value.*

Samsung Smart Remote, powered by Peel, utilizes the built-in IR emitter in the GALAXY Note 10.1 to transform the device into a sophisticated universal remote control that can control an entire home entertainment system and even recommend programs.

Finally, Polaris Office lets provides robust word processing, spreadsheet and presentation capabilities, while S Pen support makes it a snap to mark up and annotate documents.

Superior Hardware Performance and Connectivity

GALAXY Note 10.1 is designed with advanced hardware technology, including a 1.4GHz quad-core processor and 2GB of internal RAM. Seamless multi-tasking, high-standard graphics, and blazing-fast performance without any lag are essential features of GALAXY Note 10.1. The device also includes a 5-megapixel main camera and a 1.9-megapixel front-facing camera.

The GALAXY Note 10.1 carries over several features first introduced with the hit GALAXY S III smartphone, making it an ideal companion tablet for owners of that devices. ShareShot which makes it a snap to automatically share photos in real time between the GALAXY Note 10.1 and the GALAXY S III.

Smart Stay, first introduced with the GALAXY S III, uses the camera in the GALAXY Note 10.1 to prevent the device from going into standby mode while it detects a user in front of the device.

Finally, with AllShare® Play, users can share content with a large group in real-time by connecting GALAXY Note 10.1 to Samsung HD TVs, phones, mobile tablets, laptops, and other consumer electronic devices on the same network. With Group Cast, users can also share and collaborate on documents, presentations, or images in real time, without loading the files separately.

Available Aug 16th Across the U.S.

GALAXY Note 10.1 will be available beginning Aug 16th nationwide at partners including Best Buy, Amazon, Tiger Direct, HH Gregg, CDW, BrandSmart, Conn's and Fry's.

In a special promotion, Samsung will also be making the GALAXY Note 10.1 available at BBY's Union Square store in NYC beginning at noon EDT today, Aug 15th.

The device will be available in choice of white or dark gray, and in 16 GB or 32 GB memory configurations, for $499 or $549 SRP, respectively.

Available accessories include replacement S Pen, S Pen Holder Kit, Book Cover in Grey or White, Travel Charger, USB Connection Kit to allow usage of thumb drives or USB peripherals, HDMI adapter and Universal Desktop Dock.

SAMSUNG Mobile Unveils Premium Accessory Suite For Galaxy Tab™ 10.1

Samsung Galaxy Tab 10.1, the world's thinnest mobile tablet, now supported by exclusive accessory portfolio offering convenient, portable solutions in docking, charging and convertibility; Available online at Samsung.com

DALLAS, June 21, 2011 — Samsung Telecommunications America (Samsung Mobile), the No.1 mobile phone provider in the United States¹, today announced a line of premium accessories designed exclusively for the Android™ 3.1 Honeycomb-powered Samsung Galaxy Tab™ 10.1. The new set of accessories includes an array of docking, charging and convertibility options to provide users with an enhanced mobile experience for the latest in Android tablet computing.

GALAXY TAB 10.1 KEY ACCESSORIES AVAILABLE NOW

Docking Solutions

The Samsung Galaxy Tab 10.1 accessory portfolio includes several docking solutions for consumers to easily view their favorite movies, listen to music, or quickly empty their inbox on their Galaxy Tab. The Samsung Galaxy Tab 10.1 Multi-Media Dock provides desktop docking in landscape view, allowing users to charge their Galaxy Tab 10.1 while checking email, listening to music via the 3.5 mm stereo line-out port, or viewing their favorite photos in digital picture frame mode. With easy data sync to PC, pictures, videos, music, contacts, and calendar appointments sync smoothly from the Galaxy Tab 10.1 to a home computer. The Multi-Media Dock also includes HDMI pass through, allowing users to connect their docked Galaxy Tab 10.1 to Samsung's Galaxy Tab 10.1 HDMI Adapter (sold separately) to seamlessly transfer multimedia content to a home entertainment center.

With comfortable, soft-touch Android Hotkeys, convenient charging and audio line-out capabilities, the full-size Samsung Galaxy Tab 10.1 Keyboard Dock maximizes the Tab's features while keeping it securely stationed in the weighted, integrated charging and media dock. Meanwhile, the Android Hotkeys give you one touch access to key features like internet, e-mail, music and video controls.

Protective Casing Options

The Samsung Galaxy Tab 10.1 line of accessories also provides users multiple protective casing options, with two available now and a third option – the Samsung Galaxy Tab 10.1 Bluetooth Keyboard Case – available later this summer. The Galaxy Tab 10.1 Book Cover Case protects all corners and sides of the Galaxy Tab 10.1 against bumps and scratches while also converting into an easel stand with non-slip feet on the edges. When propped as an easel stand, the Galaxy Tab 10.1 Book Cover Case holds the Tab higher to easily view multimedia content while standing up, or props it lower as a keyboard stand for owners to use the Galaxy Tab 10.1 touch-screen keyboard without removing the Tab from its case. Made from premium material, the Galaxy Tab 10.1 Book Cover Case is durable, stylish and always maintains its shape.

Also available now is the Galaxy Tab 10.1 Leather Pouch for the perfect mix of portability and convenience. Made from soft leather, this black protective pouch snugly holds the Galaxy Tab 10.1 and fits easily in luggage or a briefcase, offering users a stylish protective carrying solution with no added weight or bulk.

Adapters for Multimedia Solutions

Samsung's popular movie and TV content service, known as Media Hub, has been redesigned with a new user interface for even faster content downloads and will be available on the Galaxy Tab 10.1 through a future software upgrade. The new version of Media Hub also includes an HD Extender, allowing users to play back Media Hub content on their television via Samsung's new HDMI Cable Adapter. This adapter also charges the Galaxy Tab and provides 1080p Video playback.

The Galaxy Tab 10.1 supports USB On-The-Go (OTG), a hardware solution that allows for several USB enhancements that go beyond data sync and charging. In addition to the ability to upload and share multimedia content between the Galaxy Tab 10.1 and other devices, the Galaxy Tab 10.1 USB Adapter utilizes the Tab's USB OTG support and allows seamless connectivity between the Tab 10.1 and USB accessory devices such as keyboards, mice, memory sticks, and other peripherals. After simply plugging the USB Adapter into the Galaxy Tab accessory port, owners are now able to use a keyboard, mouse, or memory stick directly with the Galaxy Tab 10.1 without having to load drivers.

Additional Galaxy Tab 10.1 Accessories Available Now

The Galaxy Tab 10.1 accessories lineup also includes a collection of charging and enhancement solutions universal to the entire Galaxy Tab portfolio. Whether at home or abroad, the USB 2A Travel Charger and USB 2A Car Charger allow users to stay powered up while on the go. Each includes a USB to 30 Pin Data Cable that can also be purchased separately.

Additionally, seamlessly interact with your Tab while leaving messy finger prints behind with the Galaxy Tab Conductive Stylus. Finished in attractive chrome and black and styled similar to a premium writing instrument, the Conductive Stylus simulates a finger touch, tap or swipe to provide a full touch screen environment without fingerprints or smudging. The Conductive Stylus is designed with a shirt pocket clip for convenient storage and portability.

Available later this summer, Galaxy Tab 10.1 users can enhance their accessory portfolio with additional solutions for content sharing and protection. The Galaxy Tab 10.1 Bluetooth Keyboard gives users a full-sized wireless keyboard in a super-thin design. The Galaxy Tab 10.1 Bluetooth Keyboard comes in a sleek black leather case that allows for easy tying at an adjustable angle, while the comfortable Android Hotkeys provide shortcuts to users' favorite Tab 10.1 features.

Also later this summer, users can transfer photos and videos directly from their digital camera to their Samsung Galaxy Tab 10.1 with the Samsung SD Card Adapter and USB connection kit. Put the Galaxy Tab 10.1 in digital picture frame mode, and users can easily view slideshows of their favorite photos on the Tab's brilliant 10.1-inch HD touchscreen display with WXGA 1280 x 800 resolution, delivering vibrant colors, crisp clarity, and smooth transitions.

For more than Tab

I would recommend this to a friend!

March 1, 2011

Took a chance that it would work with a Captivate (even though compatibility check returned a "not compatible"). It works great, with or without a screen protector. And works great with SWYPE, too! Would like to see one styled exactly like this but smaller diameter for the Captivate. I'd purchase two or three!

Pros: Inexpensive, works well with captivate, does not look or feel "cheap"

Cons: slightly large for use with a smartphone

Excellent stylus for Galaxy Tab 7 inch and others

I would recommend this to a friend!

April 27, 2011

I agree with the other reviewer, this stylus is perfect for using on the Galaxy Tab 7 inch; it's light weight, stylish, and response is really great with or without screen protector. Don't see any issue for using on GT 8.9 or 10.1 inch. But I don't believe it was intended for use on a smartphone. I ordered two stylus but only received one in the mail.

Works great with swype!

August 23, 2011

This stylus is amazing. It works really well with the swype keyboard and is way better than the generic stylus they sell at Verizon.

Pros: smooth writing style

Cons: a little pricey

No more fingerprints

I would recommend this to a friend!

January 6, 2012

So much better than using my fingers to do what I need to on my Galaxy Tab 10.1. I got tired of cleaning off the smudges, plus my meaty fingers would sometimes select the wrong letters from the touch-type keyboard. This is going to make my tab experience so much better.

Pros: Lightweight, carry in your pocket

Cons: price is a bit high

The rollout of Android 4.1, Jelly Bean, begins today, starting with Galaxy Nexus HSPA+ devices.

Jelly Bean makes everything feel fast, fluid, and smooth. Notifications are expandable and actionable, widgets are magical and the keyboard is smarter and more accurate: <http://www.android.com/whatsnew/>

Jelly Bean also features a redesigned search experience, with a new user interface and faster Voice Search. You can type your query or simply ask Google a question. Google can speak back to you, delivering a precise answer if it knows one, in addition to a list of search results.

Google Now is also part of the updated Google app, getting you just the right information at just the right time. Google Now tells you today's weather before you start your day, how much traffic to expect before you leave for work, or your favorite team's score as they're playing. There's no digging required: cards appear at the moment you need them most.

If you've got a Galaxy Nexus HSPA+ device, you will receive a prompt alerting you to the update over the next several days. Up next for Jelly Bean: all Galaxy Nexus, Nexus S, Motorola Xoom and of course, Nexus 7, which will ship with Jelly Bean later this month.

When does it roll out to "normal" +Samsung Galaxy Nexus devices?

EDIT: Forgot to expand post - later this month :)

Jason Kam Jul 10, 2012 +62

Spanning the Update Now button. :)

Dayrk Flaugh Jul 10, 2012 +74

Awesome! Let's hope Verizon gets going on that GNex rollout!

Great, can't wait to roll out to my Nexus S as well ;)

Awesome!!

Will this update come through for my Nexus S 4G on Sprint?
"yes" would be the answer I'm looking for.
"no" would be the answer that would make me all sad face and stuff.

Scott Norcross Jul 10, 2012 +11
Awesome! I've been running the jellybean leak since google I/O , and downloaded an AOSP 4.1.1 rom for my galaxy nexus last night, and all I have to say is JellyBean is great. Google nailed it with this update.

Brock Hatfield Jul 10, 2012 +32
Sadly the beauty of Jelly Bean will be marred by the carriers loading all their bloatware on the devices. As per usual.

JR Shepherd Jul 10, 2012 +3
sigh still waiting on t-mobile to roll out the ICS update for SG2!

Eric Sinclair Jul 10, 2012 +18
Why do I worry that it will be longer for those of us on yakjuxw.

Pesky pre-Play availability desires... Now they come home to roost.

Great news! My Motorola Xoom WiFi is primed and ready for some #JellyBean.

Nice! Lets get the roll out moving

Luis Flores Jul 10, 2012 +6
YES! Can someone explain to me how they determine when updates are rolled out to which devices? Is it done geographically? By serial number?

Cody Russell Jul 10, 2012 (edited) +24
+Luis Flores It's determined by who wants it the most. So start wishing upon that star, little dreamers! :)

Dave Keller Jul 10, 2012 +32
Nexus S with JellyBean? Yes please.

Boris Prymost Jul 10, 2012 +11

 Honestly Google Now blows Siri out of the water, great job!
-  Brock Hatfield Jul 10, 2012 +6
 I keep seeing folks in my stream hinting at JB running on Nexus S "very soon" so it sounds like it'll be happening.
-  James Patillo Jul 10, 2012 +10
 I'm sure Verizon will have it out on the GNex and Xoom in October...
-  Christopher Ramos Jul 10, 2012 +17
 omg! spamming my "Check now" button lol
-  Christian Carlsohn Jul 10, 2012 +4
 only us or worldwide?
-  Luis Flores Jul 10, 2012
 +Cody Russell Lol, if that were the case, I'd have a Nexus 7, Q, a new display for my Galaxy Nexus, and Jelly Bean.
-  Eichi Akimoto Jul 10, 2012 (edited)
 +Luis Flores I think they choose the devices based on which ones are ready for it. Google's Nexus devices (and the Motorola Xoom WiFi) are ready for OS updates sooner than others because the OS they come with aren't skinned by the Manufacturer (HTC's Sense, Samsung's TouchWiz, etc...).
-  Ali Altaf Jul 10, 2012
 Im out of the country and I hope that doesnt effect my update time!! Cant wait!
-  Richard Siebold Jul 10, 2012 +1
 verizon is looking at updating around christmas time as they think we're lucky to get it so it's really a present.
-  Cody Russell Jul 10, 2012 +14
 Is there a place we can just download it from and install manually, rather than waiting for the OTA update to tag us?
-  Nick Felker Jul 10, 2012 +3
 I'm psyched to get Jelly Bean on the Xoom. It's been a great product thus far.
-  Ibrahim Rivera Jul 10, 2012 +3
 toroplus?
-  Luis Flores Jul 10, 2012 +3
 +Eichi Akimoto Yeah, that part I understand. What isn't clear to me quite yet is within the Nexus devices for example, they don't ALL get it at once. With the last OTA update I got it three days after it was reported other people were getting it.
-  Pascal Bergmann Jul 10, 2012 +1
 Will the update also come to german Galaxy Nexus devices this month? =>
-  Thomas McGuire Jul 10, 2012
 Woohoo. Hope updated build to I/O (& the fixes'd that'd imply).
-  Luis Flores Jul 10, 2012 +4
 +Cody Russell I just checked <https://developers.google.com/android/nexus/images> and the image wasn't available yet.

there the servers that host the software wouldn't be able to deliver to every one at once. So the network admins determine how/where to roll it out to make sure every one gets it in a timely manner and with out crashing the network. Unfortunately it seems like it's never ever your turn to go first.

Jean Escalante Jul 10, 2012 +11

Wow. If only Bell Mobility would roll out the update. Man, sometimes living in Canada blows chunks.

Balaal Ashraf Jul 10, 2012 +2

+Jan Knudsen Probably both, its for all HSPA+ devices

Brock Hatfield Jul 10, 2012

+Renald Lepage Didn't they state the middle of the month at Google I/O? Pretty sure thats what they said. It's middle-ish...

Darnell T muzicman Jul 10, 2012 +2

I hope I'm a early batch to get this OTA.

Peter Sinnott Jul 10, 2012 +4

I look forward to the reaction from UK Xoom owners. What with the UK Xoom still being on Honeycomb and all.

Luigi Aversano Jul 10, 2012 +24

Hey +Verizon Wireless take note. We won't stay if you don't get your act together and release OTAs in a timely manner.

Luis Flores Jul 10, 2012 +1

+Brock Hatfield Totally, if it's partially geographic, it sucks for me cuz there must be a only a handful of devices in Ecuador, so we must not be very high up in the priority list. I know I'll be going into the Settings Menu very often until I get it!

Gianluca Cogoli Jul 10, 2012

4.1.1?

Luis Flores Jul 10, 2012 (edited) +1

+Gianluca Cogoli Yes, I would guess so because the Nexus 7 given to developers are getting that one, and apparently Google is also using the release to circumvent the possible injunction as it moves up the courts.

Jesse James Ettebe Jul 10, 2012 +6

I can't wait. I flashed my phone 2 weeks ago with 4.0.4, so I could get OTA from Google and not Samsung.

Dale Martyn Jul 10, 2012 +3

Awesome, can't wait for the update on my UK G Nexus

Steven Koskinen Jul 10, 2012 +3

What about my Nexus S?

Gary Calpo Jul 10, 2012 +1

I wonder if it's any different from the I/O version I'm running now.

Jack Clarke Jul 10, 2012 +3

Also waiting for it in my UK Nexus. :D

Balaal Ashraf Jul 10, 2012

+Steven Koskinen Probably next week

Jesse James Ettebe Jul 10, 2012 +5

Oh and thanks +Brock Hatfield !

Jesse James Ettebe Jul 10, 2012 +2

+Reid Canavan probably not. Seeing most of the Galaxy Nexus phones in Canada, are supposed to be updated from Samsung and not directly from Google.

Josué David Díaz Blanco Jul 10, 2012

waiting for takju Nexus :)

Luis Gallucci Jul 10, 2012 +2

Esperando ansioso

Reid Canavan Jul 10, 2012 +3

+Jesse James Ettebe I think I may have to rethink my position on fastboot oem unlock! I'll die of old age before Samsung releases the update!

Brock Hatfield Jul 10, 2012 +9

While I realize rooting and romming isn't for every one i highly advocate it. It's really the only way to have your phone your way. I've got a Verizon GNex and I've been running Jelly Bean for the past two days. #justsayn

Graham Miao Jul 10, 2012 (edited) +3

Mine just got the 4.0.4 two days ago (should've got that two months earlier?). People said it's because the software is maintained by Samsung, so I don't expect to get the 4.1 this month.

Jesse James Ettebe Jul 10, 2012 +3

+Reid Canavan Check out this website... <http://digitaligloo.wordpress.com/2012/04/20/guide-update-your-galaxy-nexus-from-yakjuux-to-yakju-4-0-4-mac-os-x/> It helped me flash my phone and it worked without issue.

Balaal Ashraf Jul 10, 2012

+Graham Miao if you want 4.1.1 youll probably get it first with the Takju and Yakju builds, those are directly controlled by Google. the others go through Samsung or other carriers before being pushed to the devices

Tom Richardson Jul 10, 2012 +2

Can't wait for it on my Nexus s!

mydo adel Jul 10, 2012 (edited) +2

I really hope it comes with a better battery performance for Samsung galaxy nexus

Reid Canavan Jul 10, 2012 +2

+Brock Hatfield I have to agree, I did this on the Xoom just to be sure I got ICS. Trying to resist the temptation and wait.. but with all the goodies Jelly Bean has to offer..... ;))

Andrew Hansen Jul 10, 2012

Is this 4.1 or 4.1.1??

Apple has one phone and one tablet. Google Android has an astounding variety of phones, each smartphone specific to a particular carrier, each uniquely coded down to the bone -- and many of these Android phones are 4G requiring "testing" by the carriers.

Similar to what Microsoft is trying to do with "Surface" tablets, using it as a cornerstone device that showboats what everything can be and makes everyone else try to go past them.

In order for you to receive the update it must be released from SPRINT or VERIZON! Google cannot release an update directly to you because of legal contract stuff...so the only people that can tell you when it ill be available is....SPRINT and/or VERIZON

Sorry for the bad news....

Gerrell Blake Jul 10, 2012 +2
+Pan Ng probably 3-4 months from now since that's how long it took to get 4.0.4 on em..I like how phones that are all suppose to be first in line to get updated really aren't any better then other android phones its sad when you have to say first takju, then yakju, then ALL the other nexuses when they should be all at the same time at least all the gsm unlocked ones but they hide the truth from you which is your nexus isn't REALLY a nexus

Sent from a GSM unlocked yakjuzs galaxy nexus that probably will never see jelly bean...and please don't tell me bout flashing and rooting because if I gotta flash and root to get a update then that defeats the purpose of even getting a nexus because you have to do the same with

Yasak Dogra Jul 11, 2012 +6

Google fooled everyone when releasing galaxy nexus by saying that phones will receive all the latest updates ota. Still stuck on 4.0.1 So buggy.
KEEP YOUR PROMISES GOOGLE!!!!

sougata bhattacharya Jul 11, 2012 +4

+Nexus When will galaxy nexus with product name yakjuwx receive the update.

Kevin Lee Jul 11, 2012 +2

How do I update to 4.1.1 from yakju 4.0.4?

Ryan Dupuis Jul 11, 2012 +7

Hey Google how many years will yakjuux (Canadian GN) be waiting for this update. We are still on 4.0.2. Samsung being responsible for our updates has totally detracted from the whole latest updates Galaxy Nexus experience.

Yasak Dogra Jul 11, 2012 (edited)

Lesson learnt: don't trust anyone except apple for updates and customer service.

Sean Saubers Jul 11, 2012 +3

If you have an unlocked bootloader there will be roms available for your "toro" version device....just do some searching on XDA developer forums

Can I hope for #JellyBean coming to my #SGSZ.

Amit Bhor Jul 11, 2012

So will the phones that already have the Google IO JB build receive an OTA update too?

Sean Saubers Jul 11, 2012

Well that depends on whether you have a "deodexed build" or "odexed build" which do you have?

Rodolfo Segovia Jul 11, 2012 +1

Putala wea quiero mi OTA 4.1.1 ya!

Monthre Kaentubtim Jul 11, 2012

I like nexus so much ^____^

Sean Saubers Jul 11, 2012

The deodexed version will not receive the OTA update. Only odexed builds of JRN84D will receive the update over the air. The reason is because deodexed ROMS have been modified to allow themeing which removes the ability to be updated over the air. Hope that helps!

You can always use a toolkit to flash the google factory image for ICS v 4.0.4. essentially bringing phone back to stock, and then wait for the OTA to reach your locale

Sean Saubers Jul 11, 2012

The build of the official OTA is "JR03c" not JRN84d....the JRN84d is the developer preview released 2 weeks or so ago

Michael Newman Jul 11, 2012

Martin Irwin Jul 11, 2012

Not out for Yakju 4.0.4 at the time of writing. Mashing update button throughout the afternoon...

asking... I'm not an expert, but I think its basically a type of data transfer based on the legacy 3G infrastructure that allows for higher speeds than 3G however not as high but comparable to 4G LTE, which is a newer type of mobile data.
For an analogy... If 3G were DSL, HSPA+ would be like High Speed Cable, and 4G LTE would be like Verizon Fios, or Google Fiber.

Alex Perez Jul 11, 2012

Since I will have to wait another 21 + days to get an official build. Looks like I will be updating my Jelly Bean ROM tonight after all.

Malhaar Kale Jul 11, 2012

Hong Kong Galaxy Nexus users just got the 4.0.4 updates from Samsung HK 10 days ago... They seems to be adding some customization (e.g. "Samsung IME") to the ROM which most users including me have never used. We are just having the delay for no value :-) probably we need another 3 months delay to get this 4.1 on our devices bought from official resellers... We buy Nexus phones because we want the latest update and best support from Google but end up we only suffer huge delay...

Yes we can flash a pure Google ROM from Android Developer page but that void the warranty of our phone...

Can +Google or +Nexus do something to help us please? =(maybe request Samsung to give us a choice to opt out their customized ROM? Help please...!!!

i heard that at first they are updating devices with 4.1.0 to 4.1.1 that is devices google gave out at the IO i bought a Takju from google play so hopefully our update should hit us with in a couple(PRAYING)..EDIT: DID anyone try forcing it with*##2432546##* ??? my friend did it and it worked but not me.. guys try it out and let us know.. Ok Guys Try this first Check in my dialing ##2432546## . then GO to Settings> Apps>click the tab called ALL> scroll down for "Google Services Framework " open it then clear the data and force close that service... then go back and search for the update in settings.. it will show that the last time u checked for an update was 1969 and will download the update forcefully.. it worked for me but you might have to do it a couple f time.. Have fun

It's almost end of the month. When does the Verizon Galaxy Nexus get Jelly Bean +Nexus?

Vincent Winther Jul 29, 2012

Can't wait for +Google Now on my galaxy +Nexus :)

Travis Ramdial Jul 31, 2012 +4

So its almost August and I'm still waiting for my update. I have a Galaxy Nexus with Rogers in Canada. I hope I get this update soon.

Jim Chambers Aug 4, 2012

It still needs some work but looks very promising... :-)

Michael Grady Aug 23, 2012 +2

curious as to why it is so much longer for Sprint/Verizon versions take so long... either way work hard and have fun... can wait to see what you have... hopefully its better then what i got on my Xoom update...

You can see more of what Nexus shares on their profile. Join Google+

We're releasing Android 4.1.2 to AOSP today, which is a minor update on top of 4.1.1.

As a note to maintainers of community builds running on Nexus 7: please update to 4.1.2 at the first opportunity. Future variants of the grouper hardware will have a minor change in one of the components (the power management chip) that will not be compatible with 4.1.1.

The build number is JZO54K, and the tag is android-4.1.2_r1.

Enjoy,
Conley and JBQ

Philosophy and Goals

Android is an open-source software stack for mobile phones and other devices.

Origin and Goal

Android was originated by a group of companies known as the Open Handset Alliance, led by Google. Today, many companies -- both original members of the OHA and others -- have invested heavily in Android, typically in the form of allocating significant engineering resources to improve Android and bring Android devices to Market.

We created Android in response to our own experiences launching mobile apps. We wanted to make sure that there would always be an open platform available for carriers, OEMs, and developers to use to make their innovative ideas a reality. We wanted to make sure that there was no central point of failure, where one industry player could restrict or control the innovations of any other. The solution we chose was an open and open-source platform.

The goal of the Android Open Source Project is to create a successful real-world product that improves the mobile experience for end users.

Governance Philosophy

The companies that have invested in Android have done so on its merits, because we believe that an open platform is necessary. Android is intentionally and explicitly an open-source -- as opposed to free software -- effort: a group of organizations with shared needs has pooled resources to collaborate on a single implementation of a shared product. The Android philosophy is pragmatic, first and foremost. The objective is a shared product that each contributor can tailor and customize.

Uncontrolled customization can, of course, lead to incompatible implementations. To prevent this, the AOSP also maintains the Android Compatibility Program, which spells out what it means to be "Android compatible", and what is required of device builders to achieve that status. Anyone can (and will!) use the Android source code for any purpose, and we welcome all such uses. However, in order to take part in the shared ecosystem of applications that we are building around Android, device builders must participate in the Compatibility Program.

Though Android consists of multiple sub-projects, this is strictly a project-management technique. We view and manage Android as a single, holistic software product, not a "distribution", specification, or collection of replaceable parts. Our intent is that device builders port Android to a device; they don't implement a specification or curate a distribution.

How We Work

We know that quality does not come without hard work. Along with many partners, Google has contributed full-time engineers, product managers, UI designers, Quality Assurance, and all the other roles required to bring modern devices to market. We roll the open source administration and maintenance into the larger product development cycle.

- At any given moment, there is a current latest release of the Android platform. This typically takes the form of a branch in the tree.
- Device builders and Contributors work with the current latest release, fixing bugs, launching new devices, experimenting with new features, and so on.
- In parallel, Google works internally on the next version of the Android platform and framework, working according to the product's needs and goals. We develop the next version of Android by working with a device partner on a flagship device whose specifications are chosen to push Android in the direction we believe it should go.
- When the "n+1"th version is ready, it will be published to the public source tree, and become the new latest release.
