CASE NO. 12-cv-00630-LHK (PSG)
AGREED UPON PROTECTIVE ORDER
 REGARDING DISCLOSURE AND USE OF DISCOVERY MATERIALS

21 SAMSUNG ELECTRONICS CO., LTD.; a Korean corporation; SAMSUNG ELECTRONICS
 22 AMERICA, INC., a New York corporation; and SAMSUNG TELECOMMUNICATIONS
 23 AMERICA, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company,
 24 Counterclaim-Plaintiffs,

2 AGREED UPON PROTECTIVE ORDER
3 REGARDING THE DISCLOSURE AND USE OF DISCOVERY MATERIALS

4 Plaintiff and counterclaim-defendant Apple Inc. (“Apple”) and defendants and counterclaim-
5 plaintiffs Samsung Electronics Co., Ltd., Samsung Electronics America, Inc., and Samsung
6 Telecommunications America, LLC (collectively, “Samsung”) (collectively referred to herein as the 7 “Parties”) anticipate that documents, testimony, or information containing or reflecting confidential, 8 proprietary, trade secret, and/or commercially sensitive information are likely to be disclosed or 9 produced during the course of discovery, initial disclosures, and supplemental disclosures in this case 10 and request that the Court enter this Order setting forth the conditions for treating, obtaining, and 11 using such information.

12 Pursuant to Rule 26(c) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, the Court finds good cause for 13 the following Agreed Protective Order Regarding the Disclosure and Use of Discovery Materials 14 (“Order” or “Protective Order”).

15 1. PURPOSES AND LIMITATIONS

16 (a) Unless otherwise agreed by the parties, Protected Material designated under the terms
17 of this Protective Order shall be used by a Receiving Party solely for this case, and shall not be used 18 directly or indirectly for any other purpose whatsoever.

19 (b) The Parties acknowledge that this Order does not confer blanket protections on all 20 disclosures during discovery, or in the course of making initial or supplemental disclosures under 21 Rule 26(a). Designations under this Order shall be made with care and shall not be made absent a 22 good faith belief that the designated material satisfies the criteria set forth below. If it comes to a 23 Producing Party’s attention that designated material does not qualify for protection at all, or does not 24 qualify for the level of protection initially asserted, the Producing Party must promptly notify all 25 other Parties that it is withdrawing or changing the designation.

26 2. DEFINITIONS

27 (a) “Discovery Material” means all items or information, including from any non-party, 28 regardless of the medium or manner generated, stored, or maintained (including, among other things,

1 testimony, transcripts, or tangible things) that are produced, disclosed, or generated in connection
2 with discovery or Rule 26(a) disclosures in this case.

3 (b) “Outside Counsel” means (i) outside counsel who appear on the pleadings as counsel
4 for a Party, (ii) partners and associates of such counsel to whom it is reasonably necessary to disclose 5 the information for this litigation, and their paralegals and support staff, and (iii) outside, independent 6 attorneys contracted to provide legal advice to a Party in connection with this action.

7 (c) “Patents-in-suit” means U.S. Patents Nos. 5,946,647, 6,847,959, 8,046,721, 8,074,172, 8 8,014,760, 5,666,502, 7,761,414, 8,086,604, 7,756,087, 7,551,596, 7,672,470, 7,577,757, 7,232,058, 9 6,292,179, 6,226,449, and 5,579,239, and any other patent asserted in this action, as well as any 10 related patents, patent applications, provisional patent applications, continuations, and/or divisionals.

11 (d) “Party” means any party to this case, including all of its officers, directors, employees, 12 consultants, retained experts, and outside counsel and their support staffs.

13 (e) “Producing Party” means any Party or non-party entity that discloses or produces any 14 Discovery Material in this case.

15 (f) “Protected Material” means any Discovery Material that is designated as 16 “CONFIDENTIAL,” “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL—ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY,” or “HIGHLY 17 CONFIDENTIAL—OUTSIDE ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY—SOURCE CODE,” as provided for 18 in this Order.

19 (g) “Receiving Party” means any Party who receives Discovery Material from a 20 Producing Party.

21 (h) “Source Code” means confidential and proprietary computer code, scripts, assembly, 22 object code, source code listings and descriptions of source code, object code listings and 23 descriptions of object code, and Hardware Description Language (HDL) or Register Transfer Level 24 (RTL) files that describe the hardware design of any application-specific integrated circuit (ASIC) or 25 other chip.

26 3. COMPUTATION OF TIME

27 The computation of any period of time prescribed or allowed by this Order shall be governed 28 by the provisions for computing time set forth in Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 6.

1 4. SCOPE

2 (a) The protections conferred by this Order cover not only Discovery Material governed 3 by this Order as addressed herein, but also any information copied or extracted therefrom, as well as 4 all copies, excerpts, summaries, or compilations thereof, plus testimony, conversations, or 5 presentations by Parties or their counsel in court or in other settings that might reveal Protected 6 Material.

7 (b) Nothing in this Protective Order shall prevent or restrict a Producing Party's own 8 disclosure or use of its own Discovery Material for any purpose, and nothing in this Order shall 9 preclude any Producing Party from showing its Discovery Material to an individual who prepared the 10 Discovery Material.

11 (c) Nothing in this Order shall be construed to prejudice any Party's right to use any 12 Protected Material in court or in any court filing with consent of the Producing Party or by order of 13 the Court.

14 (d) This Order is without prejudice to the right of any Party to seek further or additional 15 protection of any Discovery Material or to modify this Order in any way, including, without 16 limitation, an order that certain matter not be produced at all.

17 5. DURATION

18 Even after the termination of this case, and unless otherwise indicated in this Order, the 19 confidentiality obligations imposed by this Order shall remain in effect until a Producing Party agrees 20 otherwise in writing or an order from this Court otherwise directs.

21 6. ACCESS TO AND USE OF PROTECTED MATERIAL

22 (a) Basic Principles. All Protected Material shall be used solely for this case or any 23 related appellate proceeding, and not for any other purpose whatsoever, including without limitation 24 any other litigation, patent prosecution or acquisition, patent reexamination or reissue proceedings, or 25 any business or competitive purpose or function, except as expressly provided herein. Protected 26 Material shall not voluntarily be distributed, disclosed or made available to anyone except as 27 expressly provided in this Order.

1 (b) Patent Prosecution Bar. Absent the written consent of the Producing Party, anyone
2 who receives one or more items designated “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL—ATTORNEYS’ EYES 3 ONLY” or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL—OUTSIDE ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY—SOURCE 4 CODE” shall not be involved, directly or indirectly, in any of the following activities: advising on,
5 consulting on, preparing, prosecuting, drafting, editing, and/or amending of patent applications 6 (whether for design or utility patents), specifications, claims, and/or responses to office actions, or 7 otherwise affecting the disclosure in patent applications or specifications or the scope of claims in 8 patents or patent applications relating to the subject matter of the patents-in-suit before any foreign or 9 domestic agency, including the United States Patent and Trademark Office. These prohibitions are 10 not intended to and shall not preclude (i) participating in or advising on any reexamination or reissue 11 proceeding by Samsung’s Outside Counsel with respect to any patents in which Apple has any 12 interest, or participating in or advising on any reexamination or reissue proceeding (except for 13 participating in or advising on, directly or indirectly, claim drafting or amending claims) by Apple’s 14 Outside Counsel with respect to any patents in which Apple has any interest; and (ii) participating in 15 or advising on any reexamination or reissue proceeding by Apple’s Outside Counsel with respect to 16 any patents in which Samsung has any interest, or participating in or advising on any reexamination 17 or reissue proceeding (except for participating in or advising on, directly or indirectly, claim drafting 18 or amending claims) by Samsung’s Outside Counsel with respect to any patents in which Samsung 19 has any interest.

20 (c) The prohibitions in Paragraph 6(b) shall begin when access to “HIGHLY 21 CONFIDENTIAL—ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL—OUTSIDE 22 ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY—SOURCE CODE” materials are first received by the affected 23 individual, and shall end two (2) years after the final resolution of this action, including all appeals.

24 (d) Secure Storage. Protected Material must be stored and maintained by a Receiving 25 Party at a location and in a secure manner that ensures that access is limited to the persons authorized 26 under this Order.

27 (e) Legal Advice Based on Protected Material. Nothing in this Protective Order shall be 28 construed to prevent counsel from advising their clients with respect to this case based in whole or in

1 part upon Protected Materials, provided counsel does not disclose the Protected Materials themselves,
2 the content of those Protected Materials, or the fact of those particular Protected Materials' existence
3 except as provided in this Order.

4 (f) Limitations. Nothing in this Order shall restrict in any way a Producing Party's use or 5 disclosure of its own Protected Material. Nothing in this Order shall restrict in any way the use or 6 disclosure of Discovery Material by a Receiving Party: (i) that is or has become publicly known 7 through no fault of the Receiving Party; (ii) that is lawfully acquired by or known to the Receiving 8 Party independent of the Producing Party; (iii) previously produced, disclosed and/or provided by the 9 Producing Party to the Receiving Party or a non-party without an obligation of confidentiality and not 10 by inadvertence or mistake; (iv) with the consent of the Producing Party; or (v) pursuant to Order of 11 the Court. Notwithstanding the foregoing, a Producing Party may not disclose its own Protected 12 Material to the extent such Protected Material is also the Protected Material of any other party (e.g., 13 settlement discussions and agreements containing confidentiality obligations), without the prior 14 written consent of such other party, unless compelled to do so by a Court of competent jurisdiction.

15 7. DESIGNATING PROTECTED MATERIAL

16 (a) Available Designations. Any Producing Party may designate Discovery Material with 17 any of the following designations, provided that it meets the requirements for such designations as 18 provided for herein: "CONFIDENTIAL," "CONFIDENTIAL—ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY," or 19 "CONFIDENTIAL—OUTSIDE ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY—SOURCE CODE."

20 (b) Written Discovery and Documents and Tangible Things. Written discovery, 21 documents (which include "electronically stored information," as that phrase is used in Federal Rule 22 of Procedure 34), and tangible things that meet the requirements for the confidentiality designations 23 listed in Paragraph 7(a) may be so designated by placing the appropriate designation on every page of 24 the written material prior to production. For digital files being produced, the Producing Party may 25 mark each viewable page or image with the appropriate designation, and mark the medium, container, 26 and/or communication in which the digital files were contained. In the event that original documents 27 are produced for inspection, the original documents shall be presumed "HIGHLY 28

1 CONFIDENTIAL—ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” during the inspection and re-designated, as 2 appropriate during the copying process.

3 (c) Depositions and Testimony. Parties or testifying persons or entities may designate 4 depositions and other testimony with the appropriate designation by indicating on the record at the 5 time the testimony is given or by sending written notice of how portions of the transcript of the 6 testimony are designated within twenty one (21) days of receipt of the transcript of the testimony. If 7 no indication on the record is made, all information disclosed during a deposition shall be deemed 8 “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL—ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” until the time within which it may be 9 appropriately designated as provided for herein has passed. Any Party that wishes to disclose the 10 transcript that has been deemed “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL—ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” as a 11 result of no designation having been made on the record at the time the testimony was given, or 12 information contained therein, may provide written notice of its intent to treat the transcript as non-13 confidential, after which time, any Party that wants to maintain any portion of the transcript as 14 confidential must designate the confidential portions within fourteen (14) days, or else the transcript
15 may be treated as non-confidential. Any Protected Material that is used in the taking of a deposition 16 shall remain subject to the provisions of this Protective Order, along with the transcript pages of the 17 deposition testimony dealing with such Protected Material. In such cases the court reporter shall be 18 informed of this Protective Order and shall be required to operate in a manner consistent with this 19 Protective Order. In the event the deposition is videotaped, the original and all copies of the 20 videotape shall be marked by the video technician to indicate that the contents of the videotape are 21 subject to this Protective Order, substantially along the lines of “This videotape contains confidential 22 testimony used in this case and is not to be viewed or the contents thereof to be displayed or revealed 23 except pursuant to the terms of the operative Protective Order in this matter or pursuant to written 24 stipulation of the parties.” Counsel for any Producing Party shall have the right to exclude from oral 25 depositions, other than the deponent, deponent’s counsel, the reporter and videographer (if any), any 26 person who is not authorized by this Protective Order to receive or access Protected Material based 27 on the designation of such Protected Material. Such right of exclusion shall be applicable only during 28 periods of examination or testimony regarding such Protected Material.

1 8. DISCOVERY MATERIAL DESIGNATED AS “CONFIDENTIAL”

2 (a) A Producing Party may designate Discovery Material as “CONFIDENTIAL” if it
3 contains or reflects information that qualifies for protection under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 4 26(c).

5 (b) Unless otherwise ordered by the Court, Discovery Material designated as 6 “CONFIDENTIAL” may be disclosed only to the following:

7 (i) The Receiving Party’s Outside Counsel;

8 (ii) Outside Counsel’s immediate paralegals and staff, and any copying or clerical
9 litigation support services working at the direction of such counsel, paralegals, and staff;

10 (iii) Any outside expert or consultant retained by the Receiving Party to assist in 11 this action, provided that disclosure is only to the extent necessary to perform such work; and 12 provided that: (a) such expert or consultant has agreed to be bound by the provisions of the Protective 13 Order by signing a copy of Exhibit A; and (b) such expert or consultant is not a current officer, 14 director, or employee of a Party, nor anticipated at the time of retention to become an officer, director 15 or employee of a Party;

16 (iv) Court reporters, stenographers and videographers retained to record testimony
17 taken in this action;

18 (v) The Court, jury, and court personnel;

19 (vi) Document processing and hosting vendors, and graphics, translation, design,
20 and/or trial consulting services, having first agreed to be bound by the provisions of the Protective 21 Order by signing a copy of Exhibit A;

22 (vii) Mock jurors who have signed an undertaking or agreement agreeing not to 23 publicly disclose Protected Material and to keep any information concerning Protected Material 24 confidential;

25 (viii) Any mediator who is assigned to hear this matter, and his or her staff, subject 26 to their agreement to maintain confidentiality to the same degree as required by this Protective Order; 27 and

1 (ix) Any other person with the prior written consent of the Producing Party or by 2 Order of this Court.

3 9. DISCOVERY MATERIAL DESIGNATED AS “CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ 4 EYES ONLY”

5 (a) A Producing Party may designate Discovery Material as “HIGHLY 6 CONFIDENTIAL—ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” if it contains or reflects sensitive business 7 information that is trade secret, and/or commercially sensitive, where substantial harm from 8 disclosure cannot otherwise be avoided. The Parties agree that at least the following information, if 9 non-public, shall be presumed to merit the “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL—ATTORNEYS’ EYES 10 ONLY” designation: trade secrets, pricing information, financial data, sales information, sales or 11 marketing forecasts or plans, business plans, sales or marketing strategy, cost information, licensing
12 of the Producing Party’s intellectual property, product development information, engineering 13 documents, testing documents, employee information, and other non-public information of similar 14 competitive and business sensitivity.

15 (b) Unless otherwise ordered by the Court, Discovery Material designated as “HIGHLY 16 CONFIDENTIAL—ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” may be disclosed only to:

17 (i) The Receiving Party’s Outside Counsel, except that unless otherwise agreed no 18 Outside Counsel who is involved in competitive decision-making¹, as defined by U.S. Steel v. United 19 States, 730 F.2d 1465, 1468 n.3 (Fed. Cir. 1984), shall have access to Discovery Material designated as 20 “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL—ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY”;

21 (ii) Outside Counsel’s immediate paralegals and staff, and any copying or clerical
22 litigation support services working at the direction of such counsel, paralegals, and staff;

23 (iii) Any outside expert or consultant retained by the Receiving Party to assist in 24 this action, provided that disclosure is only to the extent necessary to perform such work; and 25 provided that: (a) such expert or consultant has agreed to be bound by the provisions of the Protective 26 Order by signing a copy of Exhibit A; (b) such expert or consultant is not a current officer, director, 27

28 ¹ For the absence of doubt, for the purposes of this Protective Order, “competitive decision-making” shall not include duties traditionally performed by outside counsel with respect to advising the Parties regarding this or other litigation.

1 or employee of a Party or of a competitor of a Party with respect to the subject matter of the patents-
2 in-suit, nor anticipated at the time of retention to become an officer, director, or employee of a Party
3 or of a competitor of a Party with respect to the subject matter of the patents-in-suit; (c) such expert
4 or consultant is not involved in competitive decision-making, as defined by U.S. Steel v. United
5 States, 730 F.2d 1465, 1468 n.3 (Fed. Cir. 1984), on behalf of a Party or a competitor of a Party with 6 respect to the subject matter of the patents-in-suit; and (d) no unresolved objections to such disclosure
7 exist after proper notice has been given to all Parties as set forth in Paragraph 12 below;

8 (iv) Court reporters, stenographers and videographers retained to record testimony
9 taken in this action;

10 (v) The Court, jury, and court personnel;

11 (vi) Document processing and hosting vendors, and graphics, translation, design,
12 and/or trial consulting services, having first agreed to be bound by the provisions of the Protective 13 Order by signing a copy of Exhibit A;

14 (vii) Any mediator who is assigned to hear this matter, and his or her staff, subject
15 to their agreement to maintain confidentiality to the same degree as required by this Protective Order; 16 and

17 (viii) Any other person with the prior written consent of the Producing Party or by 18 order of this Court.

19 10. DISCOVERY MATERIAL DESIGNATED AS “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL— 20 OUTSIDE ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY—SOURCE CODE”

21 (a) To the extent production of Source Code becomes necessary to the prosecution or 22 defense of the case, a Producing Party may designate Source Code as “HIGHLY 23 CONFIDENTIAL—OUTSIDE ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY—SOURCE CODE” if it comprises or 24 includes confidential, proprietary, and/or trade secret Source Code.

25 (b) Nothing in this Order shall be construed as a representation or admission that Source 26 Code is properly discoverable in this action, or to obligate any Party to produce any Source Code.

27 (c) Unless otherwise ordered by the Court, Discovery Material designated as “HIGHLY 28 CONFIDENTIAL—OUTSIDE ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY—SOURCE CODE” shall be subject to

1 the provisions set forth in Paragraph 11 below, and may be disclosed, subject to Paragraph 11 below, 2 solely to:

3 (i) The Receiving Party's Outside Counsel, except that unless otherwise agreed no 4 Outside Counsel who is involved in competitive decision-making, as defined by U.S. Steel v. United
5 States, 730 F.2d 1465, 1468 n.3 (Fed. Cir. 1984), shall have access to Discovery Material designated as
6 "HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL—OUTSIDE ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY—SOURCE CODE";

7 (ii) Outside Counsel's immediate paralegals and staff, and any copying or clerical
8 litigation support services working at the direction of such counsel, paralegals, and staff;

9 (iii) Any outside expert or consultant retained by the Receiving Party to assist in 10 this action, provided that disclosure is only to the extent necessary to perform such work; and 11 provided that: (a) such expert or consultant has agreed to be bound by the provisions of the Protective
12 Order by signing a copy of Exhibit A; (b) such expert or consultant is not a current officer, director,
13 or employee of a Party or of a competitor of a Party with respect to the subject matter of the patents-
14 in-suit, nor anticipated at the time of retention to become an officer, director or employee of a Party
15 or of a competitor of a Party with respect to the subject matter of the patents-in-suit; (c) such expert
16 or consultant is not involved in competitive decision-making, as defined by U.S. Steel v. United 17 States, 730 F.2d 1465, 1468 n.3 (Fed. Cir. 1984), on behalf of a Party or a competitor of a Party with 18 respect to the subject matter of the patents-in-suit; and (d) no unresolved objections to such disclosure
19 exist after proper notice has been given to all Parties as set forth in Paragraph 12 below;

20 (iv) Court reporters, stenographers and videographers retained to record testimony
21 taken in this action;

22 (v) The Court, jury, and court personnel;

23 (vi) Any mediator who is assigned to hear this matter, and his or her staff, subject
24 to their agreement to maintain confidentiality to the same degree as required by this Protective Order; 25 and

26 (vii) Any other person with the prior written consent of the Producing Party or by 27 order of this Court.

28 11. DISCLOSURE AND REVIEW OF SOURCE CODE

1 (a) The following provisions apply to the production of Source Code that is designated
2 “[PRODUCING PARTY’S] HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL—OUTSIDE ATTORNEYS’ EYES
3 ONLY—SOURCE CODE,” unless otherwise agreed by the Producing Party:

4 (b) All Source Code shall be made available by the Producing Party to the Receiving 5 Party in a secure room, on at least two secured, stand-alone computers (running a reasonably current 6 operating system) per software platform produced, without Internet access or network access to other 7 computers, as necessary and appropriate to prevent and protect against any unauthorized copying, 8 transmission, removal, or other transfer of any Source Code outside or away from the computer on 9 which the Source Code is provided for inspection (hereinafter “Confidential Source Code 10 Computer”). If it should be necessary, the Confidential Source Code Computer may be configured 11 by the Producing Party to run other mutually agreed upon operating systems. Except as otherwise 12 authorized by the Producing Party, no more than a total of 25 individuals identified by the Receiving 13 Party shall have access to the secure room in which the Producing Party produces its Source Code.

14 (c) The Producing Party shall install tools that are sufficient for viewing and searching the 15 code produced, on the platform produced, if such tools exist and are presently used in the ordinary 16 course of the Producing Party’s business. The Receiving Party’s outside counsel and/or experts may 17 request that commercially available software tools for viewing and searching Source Code be 18 installed on the secured computer, provided, however, that (a) the Receiving Party possesses an 19 appropriate license to such software tools; (b) the Producing Party approves such software tools; and 20 (c) such other software tools are reasonably necessary for the Receiving Party to perform its review 21 of the Source Code consistent with all of the protections herein. The Receiving Party must provide 22 the Producing Party with the CD or DVD containing such licensed software tool(s) at least fourteen 23 (14) days in advance of the date upon which the Receiving Party wishes to have the additional 24 software tools available for use on the Confidential Source Code Computer. Specific tools may 25 include but are not limited to: Visual Slick Edit, Source-Navigator, PowerGrep, and ExamDiff Pro, 26 or other similar programs. The Receiving Party shall not at any time use any compilers, interpreters 27 or simulators in connection with the Producing Party’s Source Code.

28

1 (d) The Producing Party shall make the Source Code available electronically and in text 2 searchable form in a secure room at the offices of the Producing Party's outside counsel as defined in 3 paragraph 2(b) or any other location mutually agreed by the parties.

4 (e) In order to verify that its Source Code has not later been altered, the Producing Party 5 may benchmark the materials before and after they are provided but shall not install any keystroke or 6 other monitoring software on the Confidential Source Code Computer.

7 (f) The Confidential Source Code Computer shall be made available from 9:00 a.m. to 8 7:00 p.m. local time, Monday through Friday (excluding holidays), and other days and/or times, 9 including weekends, upon reasonable request at least until the close of expert discovery in this action.
10 Access on weekends or after hours shall be permitted only on three days' advance written notice.

11 (g) Prior to the first inspection of any requested piece of Source Code, the requesting 12 party shall provide fourteen (14) days notice of the Source Code that it wishes to inspect. The 13 requesting party shall provide two (2) days notice prior to any additional inspections of the same
14 Source Code, although the parties will be reasonable in accommodating requests of less than two (2) 15 days. The Receiving Party shall identify any individual who will be given access to the Source Code 16 at least ten (10) days prior to the first time any such individual is given access to the Source Code, 17 and, during that 10-day period, the Producing Party may object to providing access to any persons so 18 identified. The Receiving Party shall provide two (2) days notice any time each such individual is 19 given access to the Source Code after the first time, although the parties will be reasonable in 20 accommodating notice of less than two (2) days. If an objection to an individual is made by the 21 Producing Party, it will be the burden of the Producing Party to prove that the individual should not 22 be authorized to inspect the Producing Party's Source Code.

23 (h) Proper identification of all authorized persons shall be provided prior to any access to 24 the secure room or to the Confidential Source Code Computer. Proper identification requires 25 showing, at a minimum, a photo identification card sanctioned by the government of any State of the 26 United States, by the government of the United States, or by the nation state of the authorized 27 person's current citizenship. Access to the secure room or the Confidential Source Code Computer 28

1 may be denied, at the discretion of the Producing Party, to any individual who fails to provide proper 2 identification.

3 (i) The Confidential Source Code Computer shall be equipped with a printer with 4 commercially reasonable printing speeds to print copies of the Source Code on watermarked pre-5 Bates numbered paper, which shall be provided by the Producing Party. The Receiving Party may 6 print limited portions of the Source Code only when reasonably necessary to facilitate the Receiving 7 Party's preparation of court filings, expert reports, and trial exhibits, and shall print only such 8 portions as are relevant to the claims and defenses in the case and are reasonably necessary for such 9 purpose. The Receiving Party shall not print Source Code in order to review blocks of Source Code 10 elsewhere in the first instance, i.e., as an alternative to reviewing that Source Code electronically on 11 the Confidential Source Code Computer, as the parties acknowledge and agree that the purpose of the 12 protections herein would be frustrated by printing portions of code for review and analysis elsewhere.
13 If the Producing Party objects that the printed portions are excessive and/or not done for a permitted
14 purpose, the Producing Party shall make such objection known to the Receiving Party within five (5)
15 days. Printed portions which exceed 50 continuous pages or 10% or more of a specific software 16 release shall be presumed excessive and not done for a permitted purpose. If, after meeting and 17 conferring, the Producing Party and the Receiving Party cannot resolve the objection, the Receiving 18 Party shall be entitled to seek the Court's resolution of whether the printed Source Code in question is 19 narrowly tailored and was printed for a permitted purpose. The burden shall be on the Receiving 20 Party to demonstrate that such printed portions are no more than is reasonably necessary for a 21 permitted purpose and not merely printed for the purposes of review and analysis elsewhere. Except 22 as otherwise authorized by the Producing Party, no more than a total of 40 individuals identified by 23 the Receiving Party shall have access to the printed portions of Source Code (except insofar as such 24 code appears in any filing with the Court or expert report in this case).

25 (j) The printed Source Code shall be labeled with "[PRODUCING PARTY'S NAME]
26 HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL—OUTSIDE ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY—SOURCE CODE." 27 Outside counsel for the Producing Party will keep the originals of these printed documents, and 28 copies shall be made for outside counsel for the Receiving Party on watermarked paper within 48

1 hours. It is the responsibility of the Producing Party to ensure delivery of the printed documents to 2 outside counsel for the Receiving Party within 48 hours. The Receiving Party's outside counsel may 3 make no more than ten (10) additional paper copies of any portions of the Source Code received from 4 a Producing Party, not including copies attached to court filings or used at depositions.

5 (k) In addition to other reasonable steps to maintain the security and confidentiality of the 6 Producing Party's Source Code, printed copies of the Source Code maintained by the Receiving Party
7 must be kept in a locked storage container when not in use. No electronic copies of the Source Code 8 shall be provided by the Producing Party beyond the Confidential Source Code Computer.

9 (l) Except as provided herein, absent express written permission from the Producing 10 Party, the Receiving Party may not create electronic images, or any other images, or make electronic 11 copies, of the Source Code from any paper copy of Source Code for use in any manner (including, by 12 way of example only, the Receiving Party may not scan the Source Code to a PDF or photograph the 13 code). Images or copies of Source Code shall not be included in correspondence between the parties 14 (references to production numbers shall be used instead), and shall be omitted from pleadings and 15 other papers whenever possible. If a party reasonably believes that it needs to submit a portion of 16 Source Code as part of a filing with the Court, the parties shall meet and confer as to how to make 17 such a filing while protecting the confidentiality of the Source Code and such filing will not be made 18 absent agreement from the supplier that the confidentiality protections will be adequate. If a 19 Producing Party agrees to produce an electronic copy of all or any portion of its Source Code or to 20 provide written permission to the Receiving Party to produce an electronic or any other copy of 21 Source Code for purposes of a court filing, the Receiving Party's communication and/or disclosure of 22 electronic files or other materials containing any portion of Source Code (paper or electronic) shall at 23 all times be limited solely to individuals who are expressly authorized to view Source Code under the 24 provisions of this Order, and all such individuals must be identified, in accordance with paragraph 25 11(q), on the Confidential Source Code Access Log as reviewers and/or recipients of paper copies.

26 In the case where the Producing Party has provided the express written permission required under this 27 provision for a Receiving Party to create electronic copies of Source Code, the electronic copies shall 28 be included on the log required by paragraph 11(q); and any other information required by paragraph

1 11(q) shall be included on the log. Additionally, any such electronic copies must be labeled
2 “[PRODUCING PARTY’S NAME] HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL—OUTSIDE ATTORNEYS’ EYES
3 ONLY—SOURCE CODE” as provided for in this Order.

4 (m) For depositions, the Receiving Party shall not bring copies of any printed Source 5 Code. Rather, at least five (5) days before the date of the deposition, the Receiving Party shall notify 6 the Producing Party about the specific portions of Source Code it wishes to use at the deposition, and 7 the Producing Party shall bring printed copies of those portions to the deposition for use by the 8 Receiving Party. Copies of Source Code that are marked as deposition exhibits shall not be provided 9 to the court reporter or attached to deposition transcripts; rather, the deposition record will identify 10 the exhibit by its production numbers. All paper copies of Source Code brought to the deposition 11 shall be returned to the Producing Party and securely destroyed in a timely manner following the 12 deposition.

13 (n) Other than the Confidential Source Code Computer and printer provided by the 14 Producing Party, no electronic devices, including but not limited to laptops, floppy drives, zip drives 15 or other hardware, shall be permitted in the secure room. Nor shall any cellular telephones, personal 16 digital assistants, Blackberries, cameras, voice recorders, Dictaphones, telephone jacks, or other 17 devices be permitted inside the secure room. No non-electronic devices capable of similar 18 functionality shall be permitted in the secure room. The Receiving Party shall be entitled to take 19 notes relating to the Source Code but may not copy the Source Code into the notes and may not take 20 such notes electronically on the Confidential Source Code Computer itself or any other computer.
21 No copies of all or any portion of the Source Code may leave the room in which the Source Code is 22 inspected except as otherwise provided herein. Further, no other written or electronic record of the 23 Source Code is permitted except as otherwise provided herein. The Producing Party may visually 24 monitor the activities of the Receiving Party’s representatives during any Source Code review, but 25 only to ensure that no unauthorized records of the Source Code and no information concerning the 26 Source Code are being created or transmitted in any way.

27 (o) Other than as provided in paragraph 11(n), the Receiving Party will not copy, remove, 28 or otherwise transfer any Source Code from the Confidential Source Code Computer including,

1 without limitation, copying, removing, or transferring the Source Code onto any recordable media or 2 recordable device, including without limitation sound recorders, computers, cellular telephones, 3 peripheral equipment, cameras, CDs, DVDs, or drives of any kind. The Receiving Party will not 4 transmit any Source Code in any way from the Producing Party's facilities or the offices of the 5 Producing Party's outside counsel.

6 (p) Unless otherwise agreed in advance by the parties in writing, following each day on 7 which inspection of Source Code is done under this Order, the Receiving Party's outside counsel 8 and/or experts shall remove all notes, documents, and all other materials from the secure room. The 9 Producing Party shall not be responsible for any items left in the room following each inspection 10 session, and the Receiving Party shall have no expectation of confidentiality for any items left in the 11 room following each inspection session without a prior agreement to that effect.

12 (q) The Receiving Party shall maintain a Confidential Source Code Access Log 13 identifying each hard copy (or electronic copy as permitted by paragraph 11(l)) of Source Code that it 14 has in its possession and, for each and every time the hard copy (or electronic copy as permitted by 15 paragraph 11(l)) of the Source Code is viewed, the following additional information: (i) the name of 16 each person who viewed the Source Code; and (ii) whether any portion of the Source Code was 17 copied and, if so, what portion was copied. The Producing Party shall be entitled to a copy of the log 18 upon one (1) day's advance notice to the Receiving Party. Within thirty (30) days after the issuance 19 of a final, non-appealable decision resolving all issues in the above-captioned action, the Receiving 20 Party must serve upon the Producing Party the Confidential Source Code Access Log. Additionally, 21 within thirty (30) days after the issuance of a final, non-appealable decision resolving all issues in the 22 action, all persons to whom the paper copies of the Source Code were provided must certify in 23 writing that all copies of the Source Code were returned to Counsel of Record for the Producing Party
24 and that they will make no use of the Source Code or of any knowledge gained from the Source Code 25 in any future endeavor.

26 (r) Nothing herein shall be deemed a waiver of a party's right to object to the production 27 of Source Code. Absent a subsequent and specific court or agency order, nothing herein shall 28 obligate a party to breach any non-party license agreement relating to such Source Code.

1 (s) The parties further acknowledge that some or all of the Source Code may be owned by 2 non-parties and not in a party's possession, custody, or control. Nothing herein shall be deemed a 3 waiver of any non-party's right to object to the production of Source Code or object to the manner of 4 any such production.

5 (t) Any consultant or expert retained on behalf of a Receiving Party who is to be given 6 access to a Producing Party's Source Code - whether in electronic form or otherwise - must agree in 7 writing not to use the accessed code to write source code directly intended for commercial purposes 8 relating to the technology at issue in this action for a period of six (6) months after the issuance of a 9 final, non-appealable decision resolving all issues in the action. This shall not preclude such 10 consultants and experts from any academic work or consulting in future litigation, so long as such 11 consulting does not involve writing source code directly intended for commercial purposes relating to 12 the technology at issue in this action.

13 12. NOTICE OF DISCLOSURE

14 (a) Prior to disclosing any Protected Material to any person described in Paragraphs , 15 9(b)(iii) or 10(c)(iii) (referenced below as "Person"), the Party seeking to disclose such information 16 shall provide the Producing Party with written notice that includes:

17 (i) the name of the Person; (ii) the present employer and title of the Person; (iii) an 18 identification of all of the Person's past or current employment or consulting relationships, including 19 direct relationships and relationships through entities owned or controlled by the Person, within the 20 last five (5) years; (iv) an up-to-date curriculum vitae of the Person; and (v) a list of the cases in 21 which the Person has testified at deposition or trial within the last five (5) years. Said written notice 22 shall include an identification of any individual or entity with or for whom the person is employed or 23 to whom the person provides consulting services relating to the design, development, operation, or 24 patenting of mobile phones and tablet computers, or relating to the acquisition of intellectual property
25 assets relating to mobile phones and tablet computers. The Party seeking to disclose Protected 26 Material shall provide such other information regarding the Person's professional activities 27 reasonably requested by the Producing Party for it to evaluate whether good cause exists to object to 28 the disclosure of Protected Material to the outside expert or consultant. During the pendency of this

1 action, including all appeals, the Party seeking to disclose Protected Material shall immediately
2 provide written notice of any change with respect to the Person's involvement in the design, 3 development, operation or patenting of mobile phones and tablet computers, or the acquisition of 4 intellectual property assets relating to mobile phones and tablet computers.

5 (b) Within seven (7) days of receipt of the disclosure of the Person, the Producing Party or 6 Parties may object in writing to disclosure to the Person for good cause. In the absence of an 7 objection at the end of the seven (7) day period, the Person shall be deemed approved under this 8 Protective Order. There shall be no disclosure of Protected Material to the Person prior to expiration 9 of this seven (7) day period. If the Producing Party objects to disclosure to the Person within such 10 seven (7) day period, the Parties shall meet and confer via telephone or in person within seven (7) 11 days following the objection and attempt in good faith to resolve the dispute on an informal basis. If 12 the dispute is not resolved, the Party objecting to the disclosure will have seven (7) days from the 13 date of the meet and confer to seek relief from the Court. If relief is not sought from the Court within 14 that time, the objection shall be deemed withdrawn. If relief is sought, designated materials shall not 15 be disclosed to the Person in question until the Court resolves the objection.

16 (c) For purposes of this section, "good cause" shall include an objectively reasonable 17 concern that the Person will, advertently or inadvertently, use or disclose Discovery Materials in a 18 way or ways that are inconsistent with the provisions contained in this Order.

19 (d) Prior to receiving any Protected Material under this Order, the Person must execute a 20 copy of the "Agreement to Be Bound by Protective Order" (Exhibit A hereto) and serve it on all 21 Parties.

22 (e) An initial failure to object to a Person under this Paragraph 12 shall not preclude the 23 non-objecting Party from later objecting to continued access to Protected Material by that Person 24 based on new facts or circumstances for good cause shown. In this event, a Party must make a 25 written objection to the other Party concerning the continued access of Protected Material by that 26 Person, and the Parties must meet and confer in good faith concerning such objection. To the extent 27 that the objection is unable to be resolved, the later-objecting Party must present its objection to the 28 Court for resolution within no later than five (5) days of making such objection. Notwithstanding

1 such objection, the designated Person may continue to have access to Protected Material until judicial 2 resolution of the objection.

3 13. CHALLENGING DESIGNATIONS OF PROTECTED MATERIAL

4 (a) A Party shall not be obligated to challenge the propriety of any designation of 5 Discovery Material under this Order at the time the designation is made, and a failure to do so shall 6 not preclude a subsequent challenge thereto.

7 (b) Any challenge to a designation of Discovery Material under this Order shall be 8 written, shall be served on outside counsel for the Producing Party, shall particularly identify the 9 documents or information that the Receiving Party contends should be differently designated, and 10 shall state the grounds for the objection. Thereafter, further protection of such material shall be 11 resolved in accordance with the following procedures:

12 (i) The objecting Party shall have the burden of conferring either in person, in 13 writing, or by telephone with the Producing Party claiming protection (as well as any other interested 14 party) in a good faith effort to resolve the dispute. The Producing Party shall have the burden of 15 justifying the disputed designation;

16 (ii) Failing agreement, the Receiving Party may bring a motion to the Court for a 17 ruling that the Discovery Material in question is not entitled to the status and protection of the 18 Producing Party's designation. The Parties' entry into this Order shall not preclude or prejudice 19 either Party from arguing for or against any designation, establish any presumption that a particular 20 designation is valid, or alter the burden of proof that would otherwise apply in a dispute over 21 discovery or disclosure of information;

22 (iii) Notwithstanding any challenge to a designation, the Discovery Material in 23 question shall continue to be treated as designated under this Order until one of the following occurs:

24 (a) the Party who designated the Discovery Material in question withdraws such designation in 25 writing; or (b) the Court rules that the Discovery Material in question is not entitled to the 26 designation.

27 14. SUBPOENAS OR COURT ORDERS

1 (a) If at any time Protected Material is subpoenaed by any court, arbitral, administrative,
2 or legislative body, the Party to whom the subpoena or other request is directed shall immediately 3 give prompt written notice thereof to every Party who has produced such Discovery Material and to 4 its counsel and shall provide each such Party with an opportunity to move for a protective order 5 regarding the production of Protected Materials implicated by the subpoena.

6 15. FILING PROTECTED MATERIAL

7 (a) Absent written permission from the Producing Party or a court Order secured after 8 appropriate notice to all interested persons, a Receiving Party may not file in the public record any 9 Protected Material.

10 (b) Any Receiving Party is authorized under Local Rule 79-5 to request the filing under 11 seal with the Court of any brief, document or materials that are designated as Protected Material 12 under this Order. Nothing in this section shall in any way limit or detract from this Order's 13 requirements as to Source Code.

14 16. INADVERTENT DISCLOSURE OF PRIVILEGED MATERIAL

15 (a) The inadvertent production by a Party of Discovery Material subject to the attorney-16 client privilege, work-product protection, or any other applicable privilege or protection, despite the 17 Producing Party's reasonable efforts to prescreen such Discovery Material prior to production, will 18 not waive the applicable privilege and/or protection if a notice and request for return of such 19 inadvertently produced Discovery Material is made promptly after the Producing Party learns of its 20 inadvertent production.

21 (b) Upon a notice and request from any Producing Party who has inadvertently produced 22 Discovery Material that it believes is privileged and/or protected, each Receiving Party shall 23 immediately return within five (5) days of such notice and request such Protected Material or 24 Discovery Material and all copies to the Producing Party, except for any pages containing privileged 25 markings by the Receiving Party which shall instead be destroyed and certified as such by the 26 Receiving Party to the Producing Party.

27 (c) Within five (5) days of the Producing Party's notice and request for the return and/or 28 destruction of privileged Discovery Material, the Producing Party shall provide a privilege log with

1 entries for the inadvertently produced document(s). The Producing Party shall maintain the 2 referenced document(s) until the Parties resolve any dispute concerning the privileged nature of such 3 documents or the Court rules on any motion to compel production of such documents. If a dispute 4 arises concerning the privileged nature of the document(s) demanded or returned, the Parties shall 5 meet and confer in good faith in an effort to resolve the dispute. If the Parties are unable to resolve 6 the dispute, the Receiving Party may file a motion to compel the production of such document(s). In 7 the event of such a motion to compel, the Producing Party shall have the burden to demonstrate the 8 claimed privilege, work product immunity or other immunity. However, in no case will the return of 9 any demanded document be delayed or refused by reason of a party's objection to the demand or by 10 the filing of a motion to compel, nor may a party assert the fact of the inadvertent production as a 11 ground for any such motion. The Parties further agree that the Receiving Party will not use or refer 12 to any information contained within the document(s) at issue, including in deposition or at trial or in 13 any Court filing, unless and until such a motion to compel production of that document is granted by 14 a Court, except as such information may appear in any applicable privilege log.

15 17. INADVERTENT FAILURE TO DESIGNATE PROPERLY

16 (a) The inadvertent failure by a Producing Party to designate Discovery Material as 17 Protected Material with one of the designations provided for under this Order shall not waive any 18 such designation provided that the Producing Party notifies all Receiving Parties that such Discovery 19 Material is protected under one of the categories of this Order within fourteen (14) days of the 20 Producing Party learning of the inadvertent failure to designate. The Producing Party shall reproduce 21 the Protected Material with the correct confidentiality designation within seven (7) days upon its 22 notification to the Receiving Parties. Upon receiving the Protected Material with the correct 23 confidentiality designation, the Receiving Parties shall destroy all Discovery Material that was not 24 designated properly.

25 (b) A Receiving Party shall not be in breach of this Order for any use of such Discovery 26 Material before the Receiving Party receives the notice described in Paragraph 17(a), unless an 27 objectively reasonable person would have realized that the Discovery Material should have been 28 appropriately designated with a confidentiality designation under this Order. Once a Receiving Party

1 has received the Protected Material with the correct confidentiality designation, the Receiving Party
2 shall treat such Discovery Material (subject to the exception in Paragraph 17(c) below) at the 3 appropriately designated level pursuant to the terms of this Order.

4 (c) Protected Material produced without the designation of “CONFIDENTIAL,” 5 “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL—ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL—6 OUTSIDE ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY—SOURCE CODE” may be so designated subsequent to 7 production when the Producing Party failed to make such designation at the time of production 8 through inadvertence or error. If Discovery Material is designated subsequent to production, the 9 Receiving Party promptly shall collect any copies that have been provided to individuals so that they 10 can be re-labeled with the “CONFIDENTIAL,” “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL—ATTORNEYS’ 11 EYES ONLY” or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL—OUTSIDE ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY—12 SOURCE CODE” designation. Notwithstanding the above, such subsequent designation of
14 CONFIDENTIAL—OUTSIDE ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY—SOURCE CODE” shall apply on a 15 going forward basis and shall not disqualify anyone who reviewed “CONFIDENTIAL,” “HIGHLY 16 CONFIDENTIAL—ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL—OUTSIDE 17 ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY—SOURCE CODE” materials only while the materials were not 18 marked “CONFIDENTIAL,” “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL—ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” or 19 “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL—OUTSIDE ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY—SOURCE CODE” from 20 engaging in the activities set forth in Paragraph 6(b).

21 18. INADVERTENT DISCLOSURE NOT AUTHORIZED BY ORDER

22 (a) In the event of a disclosure of any Discovery Material pursuant to this Order to any 23 person or persons not authorized to receive such disclosure under this Protective Order, the Party 24 responsible for having made such disclosure, and each Party with knowledge thereof, shall 25 immediately notify counsel for the Producing Party whose Discovery Material has been disclosed and 26 provide to such counsel all known relevant information concerning the nature and circumstances of 27 the disclosure. The responsible disclosing Party shall also promptly take all reasonable measures to 28

1 retrieve the improperly disclosed Discovery Material and to ensure that no further or greater 2 unauthorized disclosure and/or use thereof is made

3 (b) Unauthorized or inadvertent disclosure does not change the status of Discovery
4 Material or waive the right to hold the disclosed document or information as Protected.

5 19. FINAL DISPOSITION

6 (a) Not later than ninety (90) days after the Final Disposition of this case, each Party shall 7 return all Discovery Material of a Producing Party to the respective outside counsel of the Producing 8 Party or destroy such Material, at the option of the Producing Party. For purposes of this Order, 9 “Final Disposition” occurs after an order, mandate, or dismissal finally terminating the above-10 captioned action with prejudice, including all appeals.

11 (b) All Parties that have received any such Discovery Material shall certify in writing that 12 all such materials have been returned to the respective outside counsel of the Producing Party or 13 destroyed. Notwithstanding the provisions for return of Discovery Material, outside counsel may 14 retain one set of pleadings, correspondence and attorney and consultant work product (but not 15 document productions) for archival purposes, but must return or destroy any pleadings, 16 correspondence, and consultant work product that contain Source Code.

17 20. DISCOVERY FROM EXPERTS OR CONSULTANTS

18 (a) The Parties will not seek drafts of expert reports, declarations, affidavits, or notes 19 taken by experts retained to testify in this litigation, whether those reports, declarations, affidavits, or 20 notes relate to this litigation, to any prior litigation, or to any currently pending investigation, 21 litigation or proceeding involving any of the Parties. The Parties will not seek documents relating to 22 communications between such experts and counsel, including email communications, whether 23 generated in connection with this litigation, a prior litigation, or any currently pending investigation, 24 litigation or proceeding involving any of the Parties, except for documents, information and things 25 included in or attached to such communications that are directly relied upon by the expert in his or 26 her expert report, declaration, affidavit, or testimony.

27 (b) Except where a draft was produced as the only available copy, the Parties will not 28 inquire at deposition or trial as to the contents of drafts of expert reports, declarations or affidavits,

1 nor notes pertaining thereto, whether drafted in connection with this litigation, a prior litigation, or 2 any currently pending investigation, litigation or proceeding involving any of the Parties, and the 3 Parties will not inquire at deposition or at trial as to the expert's communications, written or oral, 4 with counsel, whether generated in connection with this litigation, a prior litigation, or any currently 5 pending investigation, litigation or proceeding involving any of the Parties, except to the extent that 6 the expert explicitly references or cites information from counsel in his or her expert report, 7 declaration, affidavit, or testimony.

8 (c) Furthermore, nothing in Paragraph 20(a)-(b) is intended to restrict the Parties' ability 9 to inquire into the basis of any of the opinions expressed by any expert in his or her report, 10 declaration, or affidavit, including the manner by which such opinions were reached, and information 11 considered in reaching such opinions.

12 (d) Materials, communications, and other information exempt from discovery under the 13 foregoing Paragraph 20(a)-(b) shall be treated as attorney-work product for the purposes of this 14 litigation and Order.

15 21. ELECTRONIC DISCOVERY

16 (a) The Parties agree that no voicemail, instant messages, text messages, or materials that 17 may be archived and/or retained in tape, floppy disc, optical disc or similar media for backup or 18 disaster recovery shall be searched for or produced unless good cause for the production can be 19 shown, and further subject to the Producing Party's claim of undue burden or cost. The Parties shall 20 meet and confer as to good cause on this issue.

21 (b) Materials retained in tape, floppy disk, optical disk or similar formats primarily for 22 back-up or disaster recovery purposes should be considered not reasonably accessible under Rule 23 26(b)(2) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and, accordingly, should not be subject to production 24 unless specific facts demonstrate a particular need for such evidence that justifies the burden of 25 retrieval. Archives stored on computer servers, external hard drives, notebooks, or personal computer 26 hard drives that are created for disaster recovery purposes and not used as reference materials in the 27 ordinary course of a party's business operations need not be searched or produced absent good cause, 28 and further subject to the Producing Party's claim of undue burden or cost. Neither party need

1 deviate from the practices it normally exercises with regard to preservation of such “tape, floppy disk, 2 optical disk or similar formats primarily for back-up or disaster recovery purposes” that it does not 3 otherwise exercise when not in anticipation of litigation (e.g., recycling of backup tapes is permitted).

4 22. CROSS-REFERENCE AND USE OF DISCOVERY MATERIALS

5 Documents that have been or are produced (with appropriate Bates numbers) and depositions
6 of party witnesses taken in the below-referenced pending United States proceedings involving Apple 7 and Samsung are deemed produced in the above-captioned action, and neither party shall be deemed 8 to have violated a protective order in the below listed matters by using such documents in the above-
9 captioned action: In the Matter of Certain Electronic Devices, Including Wireless Communication
10 Devices, Portable Music and Data Processing Devices, Tablet Computers, USITC Inv. No. 337-TA-
11 794, and In the Matter of Certain Electronic Digital Media Devices and Components Thereof, USITC
12 Inv. No. 337-TA-796, and Apple Inc. v. Samsung Electronics Co., Ltd., et al., No. 5:11-cv-01846
13 LHK (N.D. Cal.). Any document or deposition produced by a Party in the one of the aforementioned 14 proceedings shall be used and treated with the same level of confidentiality for purposes of this action 15 (e.g., a document designated by a Party as “Confidential Business Information” shall be treated as 16 “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL—ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” in this action) as an initial matter, but 17 may be re-designated pursuant to Paragraph 13 of this Order. Any deposition produced pursuant to 18 this paragraph shall be useable in this case as if the deposition were originally noticed and taken in 19 this case; however, such prior depositions shall not count against the time limits specified under Rule
20 30(d)(1) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure or the time limits on depositions under the Court’s 21 Case Management Order dated May 2, 2012. This paragraph shall not extend to cross-use of 22 confidential materials produced by third parties in such matters. This cross-use provision also does 23 not apply to other forms of discovery, including, without limitation, expert reports, responses to 24 interrogatories or requests for admission. Nothing in this paragraph, however, prohibits a party from 25 seeking such other forms of discovery through service of formal discovery requests in this action.
26 Any costs incurred in the above-referenced matters shall be excluded from a computation of taxable 27 costs under Fed. R. Civ. P. 54 and N.D. Cal. Civ. L.R. 54.

28 23. MISCELLANEOUS

1 (a) Right to Further Relief. Nothing in this Order abridges the right of any person to seek 2 its modification by the Court in the future. By stipulating to this Order, the Parties do not waive the 3 right to argue that certain material may require additional or different confidentiality protections than 4 those set forth herein.

5 (b) Termination of Matter and Retention of Jurisdiction. The Parties agree that the terms
6 of this Protective Order shall survive and remain in effect after the Final Disposition of the above-7 captioned matter. The Court shall retain jurisdiction after Final Disposition of this matter to hear and 8 resolve any disputes arising out of this Protective Order.

9 (c) Successors. This Order shall be binding upon the Parties hereto, their attorneys, and 10 their successors, executors, personal representatives, administrators, heirs, legal representatives, 11 assigns, subsidiaries, divisions, employees, agents, retained consultants and experts, and any persons 12 or organizations over which they have direct control.

13 (d) Right to Assert Other Objections. By stipulating to the entry of this Protective Order, 14 no Party waives any right it otherwise would have to object to disclosing or producing any 15 information or item. Similarly, no Party waives any right to object on any ground to use in evidence 16 of any of the material covered by this Protective Order. This Order shall not constitute a waiver of 17 the right of any Party to claim in this action or otherwise that any Discovery Material, or any portion 18 thereof, is privileged or otherwise non-discoverable, or is not admissible in evidence in this action or 19 any other proceeding.

20 (e) Burdens of Proof. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary above, nothing in this 21 Protective Order shall be construed to change the burdens of proof or legal standards applicable in 22 disputes regarding whether particular Discovery Material is confidential, which level of 23 confidentiality is appropriate, whether disclosure should be restricted, and if so, what restrictions 24 should apply.

25 (f) Modification by Court. This Order is subject to further court order based upon public 26 policy or other considerations, and the Court may modify this Order sua sponte in the interests of 27 justice. The United States District Court for the Northern District of California is responsible for the 28 interpretation and enforcement of this Order. All disputes concerning Protected Material, however

1 designated, produced under the protection of this Order shall be resolved by the United States District
2 Court for the Northern District of California.

3 (g) Discovery Rules Remain Unchanged. Nothing herein shall alter or change in any way 4 the discovery provisions of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, the Local Rules for the United 5 States District Court for the Northern District of California, or the Court's own orders. Identification 6 of any individual pursuant to this Protective Order does not make that individual available for 7 deposition or any other form of discovery outside of the restrictions and procedures of the Federal 8 Rules of Civil Procedure, the Local Rules for the United States District Court for the Northern 9 District of California, or the Court's own orders.

10 (h) Supersession of Any Protective Orders. Except as otherwise set forth in this 11 paragraph, this Protective Order supersedes any protective orders referenced by the Parties as 12 applying to material disclosed before the entry of this Protective Order. Any discovery material 13 disclosed by any Party before the entry of this Protective Order shall retain whatever confidentiality 14 designation it originally bore. Such Protected Material that was designated as "HIGHLY 15 CONFIDENTIAL—ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY" or "HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL—OUTSIDE 16 COUNSEL'S EYES ONLY" pursuant to this Court's Patent L.R. 2-2 Model Interim Protective 17 Order, or by the Stipulated Modification to Patent L.R. 2-2 Model Interim Protective Order for 18 Purposes of Expedited Discovery (Case No. 11-cv-01846, D.N. 76), shall be treated as if they were 19 designated "CONFIDENTIAL—ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY," and such Protected Material 20 previously designated as "HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL—SOURCE CODE" pursuant to either or both 21 of those prior orders shall be treated as if they were designated "HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL—22 OUTSIDE ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY—SOURCE CODE." In addition, any expert disclosed 23 pursuant to Paragraph 7.4(a)(2) of the Model Interim Protective Order or the parties' stipulated 24 Interim Protective Order (D.N. 80) shall be deemed to have been disclosed pursuant to Paragraph 11 25 of this Protective Order.
