17   On May 9, 2012, Defendants Deanne Brewer and Spencer Brown ("Plaintiffs") filed a

18   document entitled "Defendant's Opposition to Plaintiff's [Non-Certified Entities with California

19   Secretary of State] Motion for Order Remanding Case to State Court; In the Alternative Defendant's

20   Request Leave to File Late Opposition to Remand." See Docket Item No. 17. Within this

21   document, Defendants represent that they were unaware of Local Civil Rule 7-3 which provides

22   fourteen days from the date the motion was filed for the filing of opposition papers. Defendants

23   instead relied on the corresponding Local Rule from the Central District of California, which allows

24   for the briefing based on the motion hearing date. They now request leave to file a late opposition to 25   Plaintiff's pending Motion to Remand. See Docket Item No. 9.

26   Liberally construing the application as an administrative motion to enlarge time pursuant to 27   Civil Local Rule 6-3 and good cause appearing therefor, Defendants' request is GRANTED.

28   Defendants shall file and serve their opposition to the Motion to Remand no later than May 25,

                                                1

     ORDER GRANTING DEFENDANTS' ADMINISTRATIVE MOTION TO CHANGE TIME

2012. Plaintiff may file a substantive reply, if any, no later than June 1, 2012. The hearing on the Motion to Remand shall remain as calendared for July 13, 2012, at 9:00 a.m.

Defendants are advised that they must comply with the deadline imposed by this order. No further time modifications will be granted in relation to the Motion to Remand.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
