18             The Court vacates the September 10, 2014 case management conferences in all these cases
19             and continues them to November 12, 2014 at 2 p.m. This Case Management Order is substantively
20             the exact same as the Court’s proposed case management order filed on September 4, 2014.

21     Softvault v. Honeywell, Case No. 14-CV-01164-LHK

22             The parties did not comply with this Court’s private mediation deadline of August 29, 2014.
23             The parties are ordered to file a status report by September 11, 2014 informing the Court of their new mediation date with Judge Infante. The Court sets a new mediation deadline of November 15, 24             2014.

25             The case schedule remains as set in the Court’s previous Case Management Order, ECF No.
26             25, with the exception that the time set for trial is now only 4 days because the related case, Case
27             No. 14-CV-01166, is settling. For the convenience of the parties, the Court sets forth the schedule
28             below:

All other newly related cases: Case Nos. 14-CV-03215-LHK; 14-CV-03223-LHK; 14-CV-03221-LHK; 14-CV-03222-LHK; 14-CV-03212-LHK

The Court refers the parties in all these cases to private mediation with a deadline of December 18, 2014.

Each side may file only one dispositive motion in each respective case.

The Court adopts the parties' proposed discovery limits set forth in their respective Joint Case Management Statements in each case, as follows:

Case No. 14-CV-03215-LHK:

- Each party is limited to 25 interrogatories.
- Each party is limited to 50 requests for admission, not including requests for admission for the purpose of authenticating documents.
- Each party is limited to 80 requests for production.

Case Nos.: 14-CV-01164-LHK; 14-CV-03215-LHK; 14-CV-03223-LHK; 14-CV-03221-LHK; 14-CV-03222-LHK; 14-CV-03212-LHK

CASE MANAGEMENT ORDER

- The limits set forth in the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure shall apply to depositions. Depositions taken pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 30(b)(6) shall be limited to 14 total hours per side.
- Each party is limited to 7 total hours of expert witness deposition testimony for each expert retained by the opposing party.

14-CV-03223-LHK:

- Each party is limited to 25 interrogatories.
- Each party is limited to 50 requests for admission, not including requests for admission for the purpose of authenticating documents.
- Each party is limited to 100 requests for production.
- Each party is limited to 7 total hours of expert witness deposition testimony for each expert retained by the opposing party. However, should an expert issue more than one expert report, the opposing party is entitled to 7 additional hours of expert witness deposition testimony for each additional expert report issued by the particular expert.
- Each party is limited to 10 total fact witness depositions and 70 total hours of fact witness deposition testimony. Fed. R. Civ. P. 30(b)(6) depositions are included in the 70 total hours, and the 30(b)(6) testimony shall be limited to 14 total hours per side.
- In no event shall any single deposition of a witness exceed 7 hours, with the exception that expert witnesses may be deposed for 7 hours per report provided, and 30(b)(6) witnesses can be deposed pursuant to the 14 hour limitation above. However, notwithstanding the foregoing exceptions, no deposition of a witness shall exceed 7 hours in a single day unless otherwise agreed.

14-CV-03221-LHK:

- Each party is limited to 25 interrogatories.
- Each party is limited to 50 requests for admission, not including requests for admission for the purpose of authenticating documents.
- Each party is limited to 80 requests for production.
- The limits set forth in the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure shall apply to depositions.
- Each party is limited to 7 total hours of expert witness deposition testimony for each expert retained by the opposing party. However, should an expert issue more than one expert report, the opposing party is entitled to 4 additional hours of expert witness deposition testimony for each additional expert report issued by the particular expert. Notwithstanding the foregoing exception, no deposition of an expert shall exceed 7 hours in a single day unless otherwise agreed.

14-CV-03222-LHK:

- Each party is limited to 25 interrogatories.
- Each party is limited to 50 requests for admission, not including requests for admission for the purpose of authenticating documents.
- Each party is limited to 80 requests for production.
- Each party is limited to 7 total hours of expert witness deposition testimony for each expert retained by the opposing party. However, should an expert issue more than one expert report, the opposing party is entitled to 7 additional hours of expert witness deposition testimony for each additional expert report issued by the particular expert.
- Each party is limited to 10 total fact witness depositions and 70 total hours of fact witness deposition testimony. Fed. R. Civ. P. 30(b)(6) depositions are included in the 70 total hours, and the 30(b)(6) testimony shall be limited to 14 total hours per side.
- In no event shall any single deposition of a witness exceed 7 hours, with the exception that expert witnesses may be deposed for 7 hours per report provided, and 30(b)(6) witnesses can be deposed pursuant to the 14 hour limitation above. However, notwithstanding the foregoing exceptions, no deposition of a witness shall exceed 7 hours in a single day unless otherwise agreed.

14-CV-03212-LHK:

- Each party is limited to 25 interrogatories.
- Each party is limited to 60 requests for admission, not including requests for admission for the purpose of authenticating documents.
- Each party is limited to 80 requests for production.
