The court designated cut-off date was extended per stipulation of the parties to February 1, 2013. The parties request that the Discovery cut-off now be extended to February 28, 2013, as depositions for Defendants witnesses are not able to be taken prior to the February 1, 2013 cut-off. As such, parties agree that they will have until February 28, 2013 to conduct all depositions and other factual discovery matters. By this stipulation, the parties understand that other than motions related to discovery, no other dates imposed by the Court's trial order are to be extended.
