SAN JOSE DIVISION

CHRIS WERDEBAUGH, individually and on behalf of all others similarly situated,

Plaintiffs,

v.

BLUE DIAMOND GROWERS,

Defendant.

Case No. 5:12-CV-02724 LHK (HRL)

ORDER RE DISCOVERY DISPUTE
JOINT REPORT NO. 2

[Re: Dkt. 143]

In Discovery Dispute Joint Report (DDJR) No. 2, plaintiff seeks an order compelling defendant to produce documents responsive to his second set of requests for production. Plaintiff's request is denied without prejudice because the record indicates that his meet-and-confer efforts leading up to the instant DDJR were less than stellar and that the parties have not actually had meaningful negotiations over the information being requested. Plaintiff argues in highly conclusory fashion that defendant's discovery responses are deficient, without explaining how or why that is so with respect to each of the 29 requests at issue. He also fails to address defendant's specific arguments and assertions as to the discovery it is willing provide, and the discovery that it cannot or will not provide for various reasons. In sum, the issues were not
