UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

ADIL HIRAMANNEK, et al.,
Plaintiffs,
v.
L. MICHAEL CLARK, et al.,
Defendants.

Case No. 13-cv-00228-RMW

ORDER RE: DISCOVERY MOTIONS

(Re: Docket Nos. 323, 341, 354, 386, 389, 390, 391, 392, 393, 394)

Plaintiffs Adil and Roda Hirananeck have filed a total of ten discovery motions scheduled for hearing on four separate dates over the next six weeks.¹ Pursuant to Civ. L.R. 7-1(b), the court finds that all of these motions are suitable for disposition without oral argument.² The hearings for these motions are vacated.

SO ORDERED.

Dated: December 3, 2015

PAUL S. GREWAL
United States Magistrate Judge

² Civ. L.R. 7-1(b) provides that a motion may be determined without oral argument “[i]n the Judge’s discretion.” Plaintiffs previously have argued that deciding a motion without an oral hearing denies the movants their day in court. See, e.g., Docket No. 334. However, “it is well settled that oral argument is not necessary to satisfy due process.” Docket No. 396 at 6 (quoting Toquero v. INS, 956 F.2d 193, 196 n.4 (9th Cir. 1992)). The court will rule on these motions after fully considering the parties’ arguments in their papers.
