

1 Next, the Court considers whether it has jurisdiction to enforce the agreement. The
2 answer is yes. The Court may retain jurisdiction to enforce a settlement agreement.
3 Kokonnen v. Guardian Life Ins. Co. of Am., 511 U.S. 375, 381-82 (1994). Here, the parties
4 “consent to jurisdiction of U.S. District Court NDCA, Magistrate Judge Cousins, to resolve
5 any disputes arising from this Settlement.” Dkt. 94-1, Ex. A (redacted). The Court finds 6 that the defendants’ motion to enforce is a dispute “arising from” the settlement, and the 7 parties have consented to resolution of that dispute by the undersigned Magistrate Judge.

8 Finally, the Court orders further expedited briefing to address additional questions:

9 (1) was there a breach of the agreement by one or more parties?

10 (2) if so, what remedy should be ordered?

11 Simultaneous briefs, not to exceed ten pages per side, must be filed and served at 4:00
12 p.m. on May 9. The Court will hold a further hearing on May 14 at 2:00 p.m. in Courtroom
13 A, San Francisco. The briefing, and the hearing, will be public unless an order to seal is 14 granted in advance.

16 IT IS SO ORDERED.
