Defendant.)

On September 29, 2014, Leila Sockolov sent the attached e-mail to Courtroom Deputy Stacy Sakamoto requesting that the Court advise as to whether the parties in this case may agree amongst themselves to take a deposition after the existing discovery cutoff date, or whether they needed an order from the Court to do so. This is an ex parte communication with the Court. It is prohibited by Civil Local Rule 11-4(c) and will be disregarded as such.

The only e-mail communications that the parties are allowed to have with the Courtroom Deputy are non-substantive scheduling communications and must include opposing counsel. All substantive issues must be discussed in filings.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Dear Ms. Sakamoto:

Our office represents defendant Acts Revival Center in the matter United States of America v. Acts Revival Center.

We have a discovery cut-off of October 31. I am wondering if the parties can simply agree between themselves to take a deposition past this date or do we need an order from Judge Koh to do this?

Thank you,

--
