

1
2 UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
3 NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA
4 SAN JOSE DIVISION

5
6 TRAVELERS PROPERTY CASUALTY OF AMERICA,

7 Plaintiff,

8 v.

9 KAUFMAN & BROAD MONTEREY BAY, INC., et al.,

10 Defendants.
11

Case No. 5:13-cv-04745 EJD

ORDER RE: MOTIONS FOR SUMMARY JUDGMENT

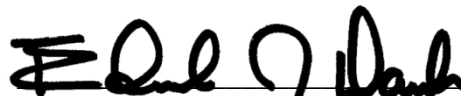

Re: Dkt. Nos. 52, 54

12 On November 3, 2014, Plaintiff Travelers Property Casualty of America and Defendants
13 Kaufman & Broad Monterey Bay, Inc., K&B Bakewell Seaside Venture, LLC, and KB Home
14 South Bay, Inc. filed cross-motions for summary judgment and partial summary judgment. See
15 Docket Item Nos. 52, 54. The court has reviewed the motions, and finds that both exceed the page
16 limitation provided by this court's Local Rules. See Civ. L.R. 7-2(b) (requiring that all motions
17 not exceed 25 pages, inclusive of the notice of motion and caption page, a concise statement of 18 what relief is sought, and the memorandum of points and authorities).

19 Since neither side sought leave to exceed the page limitation in advance of filing, the court
20 notifies the parties that it will not review any material contained in the motions past the 25th page
21 of text. In other words, the court will review the first 25 pages - which may include the notice of 22 motion and prefatory material such as tables of contents and tables of authorities - but nothing
23 more. Any arguments contained in excessive pages will therefore not be considered.

24 IT IS SO ORDERED.

25 Dated: November 6, 2014

26

27 EDWARD J. DAVILA
United States District Judge