than 6 collective terms. On or before January 20, 2014, the parties shall file a Joint Preliminary Injunction Statement that lists each term, each party's proposed construction, and support for each party's proposed construction side by side, as shown in Attachment A of the undersigned's Standing Order for Patent Cases.

- As to any invalidity arguments, Defendants are limited to 10 prior art references, collectively.
- Oral argument presented at the hearing should be focused on the issues of (1) likelihood of success on the merits and (2) irreparable injury. Oral argument on the issues of the balance of equities or the public interest is not necessary.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
