

1 However, “while protecting the public's interest in access to the courts, we must remain
2 mindful of the parties' right to access those same courts upon terms which will not unduly harm
3 their competitive interest.”⁴ Records attached to nondispositive motions therefore are not subject
4 to the strong presumption of access.⁵ Because the documents attached to nondispositive motions
5 “are often unrelated, or only tangentially related, to the underlying cause of action,” parties moving 6 to seal must meet the lower “good cause” standard of Rule 26(c).⁶ As with dispositive motions, the 7 standard applicable to nondispositive motions requires a “particularized showing”⁷ that “specific 8 prejudice or harm will result” if the information is disclosed.⁸ “Broad allegations of harm,
9 unsubstantiated by specific examples of articulated reasoning” will not suffice.⁹ A protective order 10 sealing the documents during discovery may reflect the court’s previous determination that good 11 cause exists to keep the documents sealed,¹⁰ but a blanket protective order that allows the parties to 12 designate confidential documents does not provide sufficient judicial scrutiny to determine whether 13 each particular document should remain sealed.¹¹

14
15 In addition to making particularized showings of good cause, parties moving to seal 16 documents must comply with the procedures established by Civ. L.R. 79-5. Pursuant to 17 Civ. L.R. 79-5(b), a sealing order is appropriate only upon a request that establishes the document

 2 the law.” “The request must be narrowly tailored to seek sealing only of sealable material, and 3 must conform with Civil L.R. 79-5(d).”¹² “Within 4 days of the filing of the Administrative 4 Motion to File Under Seal, the Designating Party must file a declaration as required by subsection
