1. Why Should I Read this Notice?

A proposed settlement has been reached in a class action lawsuit now pending in the United States District Court for the Northern District of California, entitled Sandra Lee Jacobson v. Persolve, LLC, et al., Case No. 5:14-cv-00735-LHK-HRL (“Lawsuit”). This Notice explains the nature of the Lawsuit and the terms of the Settlement and informs you of your legal rights and obligations. You should read this Notice to learn how much money you can receive in the Settlement, what you need to do to claim that money, how the Settlement will affect your legal rights, and what you need to do if you wish to object to the Settlement or not participate in the Settlement.

2. What is this Lawsuit About?

Sandra Lee Jacobson (“Plaintiff”) filed this Lawsuit against Persolve, LLC, and Stride Card, LLC (collectively “Defendants”), alleging that the debt collection letter received from Defendants did not comply with the Federal Fair Debt Collection Practices Act (“FDCPA”) and the Rosenthal Fair Debt Collection Practices Act (“RFDCPA”). Specifically, Plaintiff contends that Defendants’ debt collection letter violated the FDCPA by failing to disclose “the name of the creditor to whom the debt is owed,” as required by 15 U.S.C. ¶1692g(a)(2). A copy of Defendants’ debt collection letter (Exhibit “1”) is attached to this Notice.

Defendants deny that they violated the FDCPA and the RFDCPA in any manner.

The Parties, however, are aware of the costs and expenses of engaging in protracted litigation. Accordingly, to resolve this matter without the expense and uncertainties of litigation, Plaintiff and Defendants have reached a proposed settlement (“Settlement”). By settling this Lawsuit, Defendants are not admitting that they are liable to Plaintiff or the class members, but rather, expressly deny any such liability. The Court has not expressed any view regarding the merits of Plaintiff’s claims against Defendants.

3. Why is this a Class Action?

Believing that others also received a similar collection letter from Defendants, Plaintiff filed the Lawsuit as a class action. A class action is a type of lawsuit in which one or a few individuals represent a group of people who were also allegedly harmed by a defendant’s conduct. This group of people is referred to as the “Class” or as the “Class Members.”

4. Who is a Class Member for this Lawsuit?

You have been identified as a Class Member for this Lawsuit. The Class is defined as (i) all persons with addresses in California (ii) to whom PERSOLVE sent, or caused to be sent, a notice in the form of Exhibit “1” on behalf of STRIDE CARD (iii) in an attempt to collect an alleged debt originally owed to Wells Fargo Bank, N.A. (iv) which was incurred primarily for personal, family, or household purposes, (v) which were not returned as undeliverable by the U.S. Post Office (vi) during the period one year prior to the date of filing this action through the date of class certification.

5. What Relief is Provided to Class Members Under the Settlement?

At the Court’s direction, Defendants have established a settlement fund of $5,000.00 (“Settlement Fund”) and all Class Members will be sent a check constituting their pro rata share of the Settlement Fund of approximately $10.66. Defendants represent that the class size is approximately 469 persons.

6. How Do I Make a Claim in the Settlement?

Defendants’ records reflect that you are a Class Member. Unless you choose to exclude yourself from the Class in the manner specified in Section 7 below, you will be sent your pro rata share of the Settlement Fund upon final approval of the Settlement by the Court as described in Section 11 below.

7. How Do I Enter My Appearance in this Lawsuit?

Entering an appearance is NOT necessary to participate in the Settlement, or to receive your pro rata share of the Settlement Fund. If, however, you wish to enter an appearance in this Lawsuit, you must file your appearance with the Court by _____, 2016. You may, but need not, be represented by your own attorney in this Lawsuit at your own expense.

8. If I Do Not Want to be in the Class, How Do I Exclude Myself?

If you do NOT want to remain a Class Member and participate in the Settlement, and wish to exclude yourself from the Lawsuit, you must send a written request to the Settlement Administrator listed below. The request must be in writing signed by the Class Member and include (1) the name and number of this case (Sandra Lee Jacobson v. Persolve, LLC et al., Case No. 5:14-cv-00735-LHK-HRL), (2) the Class Member's name, address, telephone number, and (3) a statement that the Class Member wishes to be excluded from the Settlement. The request must be sent by first-class mail and postmarked no later than _____, 2016, addressed to:

ILYM Group Inc.
15331 Barranca Parkway
Irvine, CA 92618
[Telephone Number for ILYM]

Requests for exclusion postmarked after _____, 2016 will not be effective.

By electing to be excluded from the Class, (1) you will not share in any recovery under the Settlement; (2) you will not be bound by any orders or judgments entered in the Lawsuit; and (3) you may present any claim you may have against the Released Parties (as described in Section 12 below) in your own separate lawsuit at your own expense.

9. If I Do Not Like the Settlement, How Do I Object?

If you have not excluded yourself from the Class, you may object to the Settlement by filing your objection with the Clerk of the Court no later than _____, 2016. If you have filed an objection, you may, but need not, appear at the Final Settlement Approval Hearing in person. You may appear before the Court at the Final Approval Hearing on Thursday, December 1, 2016 at 1:30 P.M. in Courtroom 8 on the Fourth Floor of the United States District Court for the Northern District of California, located at 280 South 1st Street, San Jose, CA 95113, and explain your objection to the Settlement.

However, you must first file a Notice of Objection ("Objection") with the Clerk of the Court at, Northern District of California, 280 South 1st Street, San Jose, CA 95113 by _____, 2016. You must state in your Objection (1) the name and number of this case (Sandra Lee Jacobson v. Persolve, LLC, et al., Case No. 5:14-cv-00735-LHK-HRL), (2) a notice of your intention to appear at the Final Approval Hearing (if you intend to appear); (3) your name, address and telephone number, and your counsel's name, address and telephone number (if you intend to appear through counsel); (4) a statement of the basis for each objection asserted; (5) any legal authority you wish the Court to consider; (6) the names and addresses of any witnesses you may call to testify (if you intend to call any witnesses) and a summary of each such witness's expected testimony, and any list of the documents and things you wish the Court to consider.

10. What is the Difference Between Objecting and Excluding?

Objecting is simply telling the Court that you do not like something about the Settlement. You can object only if you remain a Class Member. Excluding yourself as a Class Member is telling the Court that you do not want to be a part of the Class or this Lawsuit. If you exclude yourself, you have no basis to object because the Lawsuit no longer affects you.

The Court has approved the following attorneys to represent the Class. They are called "Class Counsel." If you want to be represented by your own lawyer, you may hire one at your own expense.
