See Code of Civil Procedure section 367.5 and rule 3.670 of the California Rules of Court to determine if a conference, hearing, or proceeding is one generally considered appropriate for telephone appearance. Note that a court may determine on a hearing-by-hearing basis that a personal appearance is required. (Code Civ. Proc., § 367.5(c).)

This form is intended only to provide written notice to a court and parties as provided in rule 3.670(g)(1)(B) of the California Rules of Court. Check with court to determine how to make arrangements for telephone services for an appearance either directly with the court or through a court-appointed vendor.

This notice must be filed with the court at least three court days before the appearance and must be served at the same time on all other parties in such a way as to ensure delivery to the parties no later than the close of the next business day. (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 3.670(g)(1)(B).)
