23 TO: HONORABLE MAGISTRATE JUDGE PAUL S. GREWAL; COUNSEL OF 24 RECORD

25 PLEASE TAKE NOTICE: that the parties through their respective attorneys, move this 26 court ex parte for an order extending the time in which to mediate this case through the court
 27 ADR Unit.

28 Good cause for the extension exists because it is necessary that discovery be conducted prior to the mediation proceedings, and the parties' schedules and the mediator's schedule do not permit sufficient time to conduct the necessary discovery and mediate this case prior to the present deadline for mediation, which is July 21, 2014. The Case Management Conference was held on May 27, 2014, however, the ADR clock began running before that date. The parties held

1 a mediation scheduling counsel with the mediator, Carol Millie on June 5th, 2014 and it was 2 agreed between the Parties and the mediator that for the above-referenced reason, the parties
3 would seek an extension from this court, so that the mediation may be held on August 1, 2014.

4 This application is based upon this application, the stipulation of the parties, and on all
5 other documents and records in the above-entitled matter.

11 STIPULATION

12 The parties, through their respective attorneys, stipulate as follows;

- 13 1. The underlying claims in this matter are pregnancy discrimination under the 14 California Pregnancy Leave Law and Wage and Hour violations under the FLSA;
- 15 2. The present date by which to mediate this matter is July 21, 2014;
- 16 3. Because of the need to conduct discovery, counsels' schedule, and the mediator's 17 unavailability on July 21, 2014, the parties and the mediator have agreed to 18 request that this court extend the time in which to mediate this matter to August 19 15, 2014. The parties and the mediator have tentatively set a date of August 1, 20 2014 to mediate this matter, pending the court's order extending time to mediate
21 the case;
- 22 4. Therefore, it is respectfully requested that this court extend the time in which to 23 mediate this matter to August 15, 2014.
