

1 their competitive interest.”<sup>4</sup> Records attached to nondispositive motions therefore are not subject
2 to the strong presumption of access.<sup>5</sup> Because the documents attached to nondispositive motions
3 “are often unrelated, or only tangentially related, to the underlying cause of action,” parties moving
4 to seal must meet the lower “good cause” standard of Rule 26(c).<sup>6</sup> As with dispositive motions, the 5 standard applicable to nondispositive motions requires a “particularized showing”<sup>7</sup> that “specific 6 prejudice or harm will result” if the information is disclosed.<sup>8</sup> “Broad allegations of harm,
7 unsubstantiated by specific examples of articulated reasoning” will not suffice.<sup>9</sup> A protective order
8 sealing the documents during discovery may reflect the court’s previous determination that good 9 cause exists to keep the documents sealed,<sup>10</sup> but a blanket protective order that allows the parties to 10 designate confidential documents does not provide sufficient judicial scrutiny to determine whether 11 each particular document should remain sealed.<sup>11</sup>

12
13 In addition to making particularized showings of good cause, parties moving to seal 14 documents must comply with the procedures established by Civ. L.R. 79-5. Pursuant to 15 Civ. L.R. 79-5(b), a sealing order is appropriate only upon a request that establishes the document 16 is “sealable,” or “privileged or protectable as a trade secret or otherwise entitled to protection under 17 the law.” “The request must be narrowly tailored to seek sealing only of sealable material, and
