Plaintiff,
v.
ARISTA NETWORKS, INC.,
Defendant.Case No. 5:14-cv-05344-BLFORDER GRANTING-IN-PART
MOTION TO SEAL*(Re: Docket No. 261)

Before the court is one administrative motion to seal.<sup>1</sup> “Historically, courts have recognized a ‘general right to inspect and copy public records and documents, including judicial records and documents.’”<sup>2</sup> Accordingly, when considering a sealing request, “a ‘strong presumption in favor of access’ is the starting point.”<sup>3</sup> Parties seeking to seal judicial records relating to motions that are “more than tangentially related to the underlying cause of action”<sup>4</sup> bear the burden of overcoming the presumption with “compelling reasons” that outweigh the general history of access and the public policies favoring disclosure.<sup>5</sup>

However, “while protecting the public’s interest in access to the courts, we must remain

1 mindful of the parties’ right to access those same courts upon terms which will not unduly harm
2 their competitive interest.”<sup>6</sup> Records attached to motions that are “not related, or only tangentially
3 related, to the merits of a case” therefore are not subject to the strong presumption of access.<sup>7</sup>
4 Parties moving to seal the documents attached to such motions must meet the lower “good cause”
5 standard of Rule 26(c).<sup>8</sup> This standard requires a “particularized showing”<sup>9</sup> that “specific 6 prejudice or harm will result” if the information is disclosed.<sup>10</sup> “Broad allegations of harm,
7 unsubstantiated by specific examples of articulated reasoning” will not suffice.<sup>11</sup> A protective 8 order sealing the documents during discovery may reflect the court’s previous determination that 9 good cause exists to keep the documents sealed,<sup>12</sup> but a blanket protective order that allows the 10 parties to designate confidential documents does not provide sufficient judicial scrutiny to 11 determine whether each particular document should remain sealed.<sup>13</sup>

12 In addition to making particularized showings of good cause, parties moving to seal 13 documents must comply with the procedures established by Civ. L.R. 79-5. Pursuant to 14 Civ. L.R. 79-5(b), a sealing order is appropriate only upon a request that establishes the document

26 <sup>13</sup> See Civ. L.R. 79-5(d)(1)(A) (“Reference to a stipulation or protective order that allows a party 27 to designate certain documents as confidential is not sufficient to establish that a document, or 28 portions thereof, are sealable.”).

1 is “sealable,” or “privileged or protectable as a trade secret or otherwise entitled to protection
 2 under the law.” “The request must be narrowly tailored to seek sealing only of sealable material,
 3 and must conform with Civil L.R. 79-5(d).”<sup>14</sup> “Within 4 days of the filing of the Administrative 4 Motion to File Under Seal, the Designating Party must file a declaration as required by subsection
 5 79-5(d)(1)(A) establishing that all of the designated material is sealable.”<sup>15</sup>
