UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA
SAN JOSE DIVISION

EUGENE F. TOWERS,
Plaintiff,
v.
ROBERT A. IGER, et al.,
Defendants.

Case No. 15-cv-04609-BLF

ORDER DENYING PLAINTIFF’S AND DEFENDANT’S SEALING MOTIONS

[Re: ECF 25, 28]

Before the Court are two administrative motions to file under seal portions of the parties’ respective briefing in connection with the Defendant’s Motion to Dismiss the Verified Stockholder Derivative Complaint. Plaintiff seeks to seal portions of Plaintiff’s Opposition to Defendant’s Motion to Dismiss the Complaint. ECF 25. Defendant seeks to seal portions of its Reply in Support of its Motion to Dismiss the Complaint. ECF 28. For the reasons stated below, both motions are DENIED without prejudice.

I. LEGAL STANDARD

Courts recognize a “general right to inspect and copy public records and documents, including judicial records and documents.” Kamakana v. City & Cnty. of Honolulu, 447 F.3d 1172, 1178 (9th Cir. 2006). Two standards govern motions to seal portions of documents: a “compelling reasons” standard, which applies to dispositive motions, and a “good cause” standard, which applies to non-dispositive motions. Id. at 1179. Motions that are technically nondispositive may still require the party to meet the “compelling reasons” standard when the motion is more than tangentially related to the merits of the case. See Ctr. for Auto Safety v. Chrysler Grp., LLC, 809 F.3d 1092, 1101 (9th Cir. 2016). The compelling reasons standard is invoked “even if the dispositive motion, or its attachments, were previously filed under seal or protective order.”

1 Kamakana, 447 F.3d at 1179 (citing Foltz, 331 F.3d at 1136). Compelling reasons for sealing
2 court files generally exist when such “court files might have become a vehicle for improper
3 purposes,’ such as the use of records to gratify private spite, promote public scandal, circulate
4 libelous statements, or release trade secrets,” Id. (quoting Nixon v. Warner Commc’ns, Inc., 435
5 U.S. 589, 598 (1978)), or where court files may serve “as sources of business information that
6 might harm a litigant’s competitive standing,” Nixon, 435 U.S at 598-99. However, “[t]he mere 7 fact that the production of records may lead to a litigant’s embarrassment, incrimination, or 8 exposure to further litigation will not, without more, compel the court to seal its records.”
9 Kamakana, 447 F.3d at 1179.

10 In this District, parties seeking to seal judicial records must follow Civil Local Rule 79-5, 11 which requires, inter alia, that a sealing request be “narrowly tailored to seek sealing only of 12 sealable material.” Civil L.R. 79-5(b). Where the submitting party seeks to file under seal a 13 document designated confidential by another party, the burden of articulating compelling reasons
14 for sealing is placed on the designating party. Id. 79-5(e).

15 II. DISCUSSION

16 A. Plaintiff’s Motion

17 Plaintiff fails to meet the compelling reasons standard for sealing portions of its Opposition
18 to Defendants’ Motion to Dismiss. According to Plaintiff, the portions he seeks to seal were 19 designated by Defendant Disney as confidential pursuant to a confidentiality agreement. See ECF
20 25-1, Nicoud Decl. ¶¶4-5. As the designating party, Defendant Disney carries the burden of 21 articulating the compelling reasons to seal the document. Disney, however, did not submit a 22 declaration in support of sealing this information.

23 Under Civil L.R. 79-5(e), if a party seeks to file under seal a document designated as 24 confidential by the opposing party, the party must identify the portions of the document that 25 contain the designated confidential material and identify the party that has designated the material
26 as confidential. Civil L.R. 79-5(e). Within four days, the designating party must file a declaration
27 as required by Civil L.R. 79-5(d)(1)(A) establishing that all of the designated material is sealable.
28 Civil L.R. 79-5(e)(1). Here, Defendant did not file a declaration establishing that all of the

1 designated material is sealable. Additionally, a designation of “Confidential –Attorney’s Eyes
2 Only” is insufficient to establish the documents are sealable. See e.g., MMCA Grp. Ltd. v.
3 Hewlett-Packard Co., 2008 WL 5411340, at *1 (N.D. Cal. 2008).

4 B. Defendant’s Motion

5 Defendant Disney seeks to seal portions of its Reply that quote or reference the portions of 6 the complaint that this Court previously ordered to be filed under seal. Defendant Disney fails to 7 meet the compelling reasons standard for sealing portions of its Reply in Support of its Motion to 8 Dismiss the Complaint. In Disney’s supporting declaration, the only reason given for sealing the 9 requested information is that those portions were previously sealed by the Court. ECF 28-1,
10 Horvath Decl. ¶ 3. However, Disney still bears the burden of meeting the compelling reasons 11 standard, “even if the dispositive motion, or its attachments, were previously filed under seal or 12 protective order.” Kamakana, 447 F.3d at 1179 (citing Foltz, 331 F.3d at 1136).

13 III. ORDER

14 For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff’s sealing motion at ECF 25 and Defendant Disney’s
15 sealing motion at ECF 28 are DENIED without prejudice. Under Civil Local Rule 79-5(e)(2), for 16 any request that has been denied because the party designating a document as confidential or 17 subject to a protective order has not provided sufficient reasons to seal, the submitting party must 18 file the unredacted (or lesser-redacted) documents into the public record no earlier than 4 days and 19 no later than 10 days form the filing of this order.

20 Accordingly, the parties may submit additional declarations in support of the sealing
21 motions by no later than March 25, 2016, at which point the Court will reconsider the motion. If 22 no additional declaration is submitted, the parties must file unredacted versions of Plaintiff’s
23 Opposition and Defendant’s Reply by no later than March 31, 2016.

24 IT IS SO ORDERED.
